The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00—KNX—"Suspense" has a Christmas surprise for its fans tonight. Dennis Day appears in a spine tingler "Christmas for Carole."

7:00—KECA—One of the hits of the season, "Come to the Stable," will be brought to the air by the "Screen Guild Players." Loretta Young, who starred in the film, will play her original role.

7:00—KFI—Five hundred children will once again be the Christmas guests of the "Screen Directors Playhouse" when "Miracle of 34th Street" is heard in its annual broadcast. Hundreds of gifts will be distributed to the young audience, who might otherwise go without Christmas cheer.

8:30—KFI—Henry and Homer wrap gifts . . . but the "do not open before Christmas" tradition takes a terrible beating on the "Aldrich Family" broadcast.

9:30—KHJ—Guy Kibbe occupies the interview spotlight on the "Rod and Gun Club of the Air."

9:45—KNX—Here is another Crosby family act. . . . Bob Crosby and two of his children, Cathy and Chris, join Jo Stafford in some Christmas music.

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KNBH—Anna May and her 4-year-old sister will hear a Christmas story told by Tex Williams and his "Western Caravan."

9:00—KTTV—Ralph Edwards will deviate from his usual format on tonight's "Truth or Consequences." It is a party complete with Santa Claus, his family and a host of children, with Marines from the hospital in Oceanside joining in the fun.

9:30—KECA—Six young men who will soon join Uncle Sam's armed forces will taper off on civilian life by winning dates with Manhattan's loveliest models on tonight's "Blind Date" telecast.

10:45—KTLA—Two-ton Tony Galento meets Joe Louis and disaster in one of the "Great Fights of the Century."

TV Color Fight Could Be Given Back to Industry

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK. (AP) If anything, the controversy over color television is hotter than ever. When it will end no one is venturing a guess. A Supreme Court decision may be necessary.

Before that happens some suggestions are being put forth that the whole question still might be thrown back to the industry itself to work out, under a time limit, a solution that could be technically satisfactory to all concerned. A similar situation prevailed once before in the black and white early days, and an all-industry special television systems committee reached a conclusion generally acceptable.

Meanwhile, demonstrations of the two systems most directly in conflict, CBS and RCA, continue.

That of CBS, whose motor-driven color disc method was approved by the Federal Communications Commission, is being conducted on an experimental basis for the public in New York. Considerable favorable comment has ensued. Commercial introduction of this system as ordered by the FCC is an abeyance pending the outcome of court action taken in Chicago by RCA and others.

That of RCA, described as all-electronic and using a newly developed color tube, is being held in Washington. Last week improvements made since last spring's test were shown for the first time. Many of those present said much better color effects were produced, some even saying they compared favorably with the rival system.

In the controversy, most of the industry headed by RCA has linked up on one side, with CBS the FCC and a number of manufacturers on the other. The main argument is over the question of "compatibility" — how color can be made to fit in with the black and white.
