Classified Highlights of Today's Radio Schedules

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA (State Journal Radio Editor) Quality and popularity seldom go hand in hand, is has been noted here before, but The State Jour-nal radio poll turned out to be one of the instances in which they got along famously. Who's to decide on quality? Because it's strictly a matter of opinion, one must turn for the decision to those in whose judgment he has faith. In this case, it will have to be that of radio critics, both professional and lay, who have shown by their records that they know good programs when they hear them.

pear them. Of the programs and artists who placed first, many have been rated high by such listeners. Not-able on the list are "The Halls of Ivy," which won in two classifica-tions: "Theatar Guild or the Air." who placed first, many have been rated high by such listeners. Not-able on the list are "The Halls of Ivy," which won in two classifica-tions; "Theater Guild on the Air," which gives adaptions of rood plays; "America's Town Meeting of the Air," long a popular forum; Edward R. Murrow, a same and steady newsman, and "20 Questions," one of the most intelligent the moment, this sounds reasonable, but maybe. the choice of the Metropolitan Opera and Lily Pons in the music classifications. There seemed to be some confusion among readers in regard to two divisions—"entertainer, any classification" and "program, any classification." In setting up the list, I thought (naturally) in terms of how my ballot would look. So I figured that voters would choose their nominations for these sections from among the entertainers and programs for which they cast ballots in other class ifications. For example, if I thought Benny was the best comedian, I would vote for him as my favorite program, I would vote for it as the best program, too. Beaders however seldem vated that way.
