The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00—KNX—Luigi Basco gets a letter from the Immigration Department, with the usual notice of "return in five days" on the envelope, during the "Life With Luigi" broadcast. Pasquale tells the little immigrant this means he'll be deported in five days, so Luigi is frantic . . . and as the program progresses, events get more confusing than ever.

7:00—KHJ—"The Mysterious Traveler" finds more excitement tonight and another case to solve for the pleasure of the listeners.

8:00—KECA—Time again for the educational program of forum type, "America's Town Meeting of the Air." Well known speakers debate subjects of current national importance.

9:00—KNX—Inspector Hearthstone (of the death squad) investigates the murder of a wealthy young woman in the presentation of "The Rich Heiress Murder Case" . . . and of course, he comes up with the solution.

9:30—KFI—Sir Gladwyn Jebb and Lester Pearson will be the special guests on "Information Please" tonight. Sir Gladwyn is the chief delegate for Great Britain to the United Nations and was president of the Security Council for November.

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KLAC—Here is a new television treatment in a story of the theatre, under the title of "Hippodrome," and is shown for three hours. It is a novelty.

7:15—KTLA—Self-service gasoline station, dolls and their clothing, and dude ranchers are the subjects of the "Roving Cameras" tonight.

8:00—KTTV—Vaughn Monroe and his musical crew take to bell-bottom trousers in a musical salute to sea-going life during "The Vaughn Monroe Show." The revue opens on the deck of a battleship.

10:00—KECA—A heartwarming story of peasant resistance to the Nazis titled "Undercover" will be the film presentation on the "First Nighter" show.

10:00—KTLA—"The Green Convertible," a tragedy of a disillusioned wife, is the story on prize-winning "Fireside Theatre." This program is produced by the Bing Crosby Enterprises, Television Unit.
