board approved. A letter from the North Long Beach Club, advocating the draw-ing of standerd "master plans" for school construction, was read. The letter suggested that the plans be filed with the State Di-vision of Architecture with each plan being designated by a num-ber. When the school district got ready to build a new school, it could then order one of the master plans and save the pay-ment of architect's fees, according to the proposal. Long Beach City Employes' As-sociation in 1951 is to obtain ade-goate salaries closer to living costs, P. George Beavis, prest-dent of the association, an-nounced today. Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., this ob-jective and eight others will be discussed at the 26th annual meeting of the association, in the City Council chambers at the City Hall.
