DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00—KNX—Luigi and his classmates decide to go ice skating, and the little immigrant takes a date for his first venture on skates. He finds it very hard to keep his girl and his balance. It's "Life With Luigi" starring J. Carol Nash.

6:30—KECA—Back on the air again is the popular mystery show with Jackson Beck in the role of the debonaire "Philo Vance." Tonight's opener is titled "The Grey Glove Murder Case," which our hero finds a glove and excitement!

7:30—KNX—"Radio Your Mate," rollicking audience-participation comedy show starring Broadway wit and author Joey Adams as host-entree, moves from Sunday afternoons to this new time and day. The contestants are either husband-and-wife teams or engaged couples... and there's lots of fun.

8:30—KFI—Walter Hampden and Joseph Cotten will co-star as the first two Du Ponts to come to America in "An American From France" during the airing of "Cavalcade of America." They landed in Newport, R. I., on New Year's Day, 1800.

12:00—KECA—With Herb Allen at the helm, this station inaugurates a new midnight program series featuring music and general amusement for the late stayer-uppers.

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KTSL—"Artistry in Rhythm" comes to your TV screen as "Cavalcade of Bands" puts Stan Kenton and his orchestra into the spotlight.

8:30—KTTV—An all-male, all-star cast is featured in the "Dancer" play, "Surprise for the Boys" tonight.

9:00—KECA—"Kind Hearts and Gentle People," a simple Times Square tid-bit based on one of Billy Rose's newspaper columns, with Murvyn Vye and Loner Stander will be dramatized on the "Billy Rose Show" tonight.

9:30—KFI—Faced with the prospect that Southern California's TV families might have no basketball this year, KFI-TV and the Los Angeles Municipal Basketball Association developed a schedule for each Tuesday and Thursday night. Time will be different for each game.

10:00—KTLA—"Fireside Theatre" tonight tells a story about an American liberal and the documented FBI report of an attempt to ruin him.

Columnist Answers Readers' Questions

By CRISWELL

Q: Will we sell our house and get the price? O-O-Mrs. C. E. P. A: Yes, and you will get your price. The grandchild will be a boy. Your husband is very true to you.

Q: Why does my mother act as she does? Will my husband be very successful? Will I lose weight? I want health and my figure back. Mrs. W. H. P. A: Your mother is pleased at the way things have turned out, but she will soon change her attitude. Your husband faces a new opportunity which will make him much money, but he must carefully plan everything out before he takes such a step. You are what you eat; so therefore it is the chocolate cake that you don't eat that doesn't make you fat! I know that 1951 will treat you very handsomely.

Q: What made this lady say the things about me that she did? This worries me considerably. Worried N. R. 121. A: This lady is just a trouble-maker, and it is a good thing that you found out about her before you were in deeper. Just refuse to have anything more to do with her in any way that could open you for further trouble. You will soon be in a new circle of friends.

Q: I have pinned my hopes on winning in a radio contest, and if I lose this, I will be at the end of my rope. Charles E. A: It's very foolish to trust in a thing of this kind. If you had spent these months on something constructive, rather than this long-range gamble, you would not be in this present fix. I do predict, that you will win nothing, but a job will be offered you within two weeks, which you will take, and then things will be much better for you. 1951 will be most active.

Q: Will my daughter find happiness with this man? Daisy V. A: No, she will find that this man was not free to marry her. Q: When will I sell this furniture? Rose L. A: By the 10th of January through an advertisement placed in the paper.

Q: Will I get the divorce this time? Oliver A. M. C. H. A: Yes, the third time will work the charm. You will soon get that state job and marry this woman.

Q: Is my husband starting to drink again, and if he is, should I leave him again? Should I go out of state to live with my sister and be independent of him? Mrs. Grace C. M. A: When this happens, and it will soon, you will not stand the abuse, and start your new life. You will receive something from your uncle.

Q: Will my family ever give me what I consider a fair deal? Should I go away from home and work? A. W. 102. A: Your family will never change, and you will drift along with them for the next year, and then seek your independence. Your brother will marry again in 1951.

Q: I was going with a man last summer and then he suddenly dropped out of the picture, and in a few weeks he was married to another woman. Will he ever come back to me? Will my son graduate? Dorothy B. K. A: The man is unworthy of your second thought, so forget this weakling. You will marry by late spring. Your son will graduate and he will make you very proud of him; and very soon too! You will take that trip.

Q: Will they be able to rob we
