Gift to Elizabeth Sells Above Market

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 20. A bale of American cotton given by the people of Edinburg, Texas, to Princess Elizabeth was sold at two and a half times the present market value.
The bale was sent to a spinning mill near Manchester after it brought $250 ($700) at an auction. The raw cotton commission is to add an equal amount and the entire sum is to be distributed to charities after Princess Elizabeth buys a token gift for her baby daughter, Princess Anne. The gift was sent to Elizabeth on the birth of Anne. Among her other titles, Princess Elizabeth is Duchess of Edinburgh, Scotland.
