TIP O' THE MORNING:—Ezio Pinza, opera star who moved to musical comedy and movies, will make two radio appearances soon—as a singer on NBC-WIBA Jan. 29 ("Great Artists") and as an actor on CBS-WBBM Jan. 25 ("Suspense"). In the latter he'll play singing killer —his first straight dramatic role on the air.

Two Wisconsin artists are represented in the 146th annual Exhibition of Oil Painting and Sculpture which opened Sunday at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia. They are Dean J. Meeker, of the University of Wisconsin department of art education, and Fred Berman, Milwaukee.

World's Finest Receiver
This booklet also described the world's finest hearing aid receiver. No other known to Audivox, Inc. successor to Western Electric Hearing Aid Division, is so tiny, so easy to conceal. Screened by larger in diameter than a shirt button, it need not be worn in the ear at all, but may be connected to it by an almost invisible plastic tube. No cord or button need show. Every hard-of-hearing person should have this helpful booklet. Just write to: Audivox, Inc., Dept. 408-2, P. 259 W. 14th St., New York 11, N. Y.

Causes of Deafness Told in Free Book Available to Public
What science knows about the causes of deafness, and how this knowledge can be used to help the hard-of-hearing lead happier lives are the subject of a free booklet available to anyone with a hearing problem. Many of its facts were supplied by Bell Telephone Laboratories, famous for research in sound and hearing. It tells steps that can be taken to help overcome hearing loss.

Student-by-Mail Gets U. W. Extension Honor
For excellence in high school subjects by correspondence, Robert A. Clark, of Medellin, Colombia, has been designated by the Extension division of the University of Wisconsin as "the extension student of the year from South America." The student son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen O. Clark, missionaries in Colombia, has completed his full sophomore high school program through the extension division. He has been able to keep abreast of high school graduation requirements and to qualify for entrance to American high schools.

UN Boss Reports Less Fear of War in Europe
NEW YORK —(AP)—Trygve Lie, United Nations (UN) secretary general, said Sunday there is "less fear of imminent world war" in Europe now than last summer. Lie said the increased hope that an international conflict can be avoided was due partly to UN intervention in Korea and the world peace organization's "united action for peace."
