Suspect Admits Strangling Girl

CLEVELAND, Feb. 17. (P) An 'urge to kill" and an inclination to brag put George Kundracik, 24, in city jail today while murder charges were prepared against him.

The talkative, dark-haired stove company worker signed a confession in Conneaut last night that he strangled a girl friend with a bright-colored necktie, Conneaut Police Chief K. A. Pound said. The woman, Miss Emma Bur-on, 22, was found dying at the side of Lakeshore Blvd. east of here yesterday morning. And late yesterday Kundracik cracked the case wide open for police by boasting in a Conneaut Francis J. Archer, above, district superintendent of Free restaurant: "These hands killed a woman."
