DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:30 KFI A 38-year-old freshman, father of five, charms Ivy College president Dr. Hall (Ronald Colman) into going fishing with him... and thereby hangs a tall tale to be told on "Halls of Ivy."

6:30 KNX Tempestuous Tallulah Bankhead and Bing Crosby present a stormy episode of love and broken hearts titled "Just a Gigolo" when they get together on his show tonight.

7:30 KFI A look at America through the focus of the contemporary "Short Story" will be presented each week at this time. Opener is Ernest Hemingway's "Fifty Grand."

8:30 KHJ When a young woman hires a professional murderer to kill her and then changes her mind, a "Search of the City" ensues on "International Airport."

TELE-TIPS

7:00 KECA The most savage and ruthless bullfight ever filmed will be brought to the television screen in the dramatic story of the life and death of a Mexican bullfighter in "Time Will Tell" on "Hollywood Theater Time."

8:00 KNBH Ed Wynn dives deep for his laughs when he stages an underwater ballet with comedienne Lorraine Rogan and dancer Eric Victor as a feature of the "Four Star Revue."

8:00 KECA Carmen Miranda and Ronald Reagan will make guest appearances on the first and only live Hollywood original program "Don McNeill's TV Club."

8:30 KTLA Donald Curtis stars as a detective whose beat is Park Ave. and Peg Hillias costars as the owner of a fashionable beauty salon in which homicide lurks when "The Third Woman" is presented on "Hands of Mystery."

10:30 KTTV Here is your chance to see the great contest between Ray Robinson and Jake LaMotta in which the former gained the middleweight title in last week's fight classic.

TV "FIRST"! PHILCO Brings DON McNEILL'S TV CLUB To Coast Network

Yes, it's a "first" in Coast television history: Tonight—Philco presents the first network variety show from the East ever to go "live" on TV in California.

Don McNeill and his TV Clubbers—Aunt Fanny, Patsy Lee, Johnny Desmond, Sam Cowling, Cliff Peterson, and Bob Murphy—will be telecast "live" tonight from ABC Studios on Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, on a special network hook-up from Los Angeles and San Diego to San Francisco.

Don's Guests Tonight
CARMEN MIRANDA * RONALD REAGAN

Don't miss it! Tune in this big hour of entertainment tonight! It's another TV first from Philco—first in quality television.
