DIAL LITES—TODAY

10:00—KNX—Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff and Stravinsky are represented as Leonard Bernstein once again conducts the New York Philharmonic Symphony. William Kapell is piano soloist, and plays Rachmaninoff's "Concerto in C Minor, No. 2." 5:30—KFI—The original stars of "Father of the Bride" Spencer Tracy, Joan Bennett and Elizabeth Taylor appear in the "Theater Guild of the Air" adaptation of this popular movie. This is the opening of the Red Cross drive. 6:10—KECA—Louella Parsons presents a tape recording made by Junneman Abbott and Costello at the Veterans' Hospital in Long Beach, when she reports the news of movieland. 6:30—KHJ—W. Averill Harriman, assistant to President Truman, will address the American Association for the U. N. Emergency Conference at their meeting in Chicago. 7:00—KHJ—Film stars Lucille Norman, Ruth Roman, Phyllis Thaxter and Gordon MacRae will lend their talents to the "Easter Seal Parade" in a broadcast which is sponsored by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

TELE-TIPS

9:30—KLAC—Twenty-six weekly telecasts will be devoted to the erection of a house to be built right before your eyes. "The House You Live In" will start from scratch with Burritt Wheeler explaining the progress of each step. 2:30—KFI—High school and junior students who are now competing for final places in the race for the title "Band in the Making" will be featured in an extra telecast to determine the runner-up in this close contest. 7:45—KTLA—The 1950 production "Dear Murderer" will make its American premiere tonight. Erick Portman stars in this film. 8:00—KTTV—"Song of America," the musical saga of our nation's founding from Columbus' voyages to the death of Lincoln, is repeated by request on the "Fred Waring Show."
