ART EXHIBITION: An exhibition which Florence S. Berryman, art critic of the Washington, D. C. Sunday Star describes as representing "a revolution in art" will be on view from Monday, Mar. 5, through Monday, Mar. 26, in the gallery of the Madison Free li-A preview for members of the Madison Art assn., sponsor of the show, will be held Sunday. The exhibition, "Masters of the Barbizon School." is being loaned by the Cincinnati Art museum. Of it, Miss Berryman writes:

"A group of 17th century Dutch painters and 18th century English artists had painted landscape 'for itself,' and not as a background to figures and portraits. Isolated French masters, such as Poussin and Lorrain, both working in the
