Bicycle Safety Program Aided by 23,882 Pupils

THE bicycle safety program of last September. The report was schools and city's Juvenile Bureau is judged a success. A recent check at Washington Junior High School revealed that out of the 400 young cyclists. In a small percentage of them were in violation of some bicycle safety law according to Juvenile Officer C. E. Richie. To date, 23,882 pupils in pub-lic and private schools here have participated in the "bike" safety program, started by the bureau
