Bill Doudna's Spotlight

TIP OF THE MORNING: "I Whistle a Happy Tune" is expected to be the No. 1 hit of "The King and I," new Rodgers-Hammerstein show.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: When the Chicago Symphony Orchestra presents Bach's "Easter Oratorio" in Orchestra Hall, Chicago, on Thursday and Friday, the tenor soloist will be Ralph Nielsen. He is the singer who won Madison's place in the "Messiah" and "Pillsbury" this season. Wisconsin will contribute the baritone soloist—Donald Gramm, Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reith, just back from Florida, are especially interested in a coming picture at the Capitol theater, of which Reith is manager. It is "Lightning Strikes Twice," a mystery based on "Man Without Friends," novel by Margaret Edward, a friend of the Reiths... "Hilkey of Broadway," starring Doris Day, will be the Easter attraction at the Capitol; it will open Saturday.

Mae Donald (ex-UW) Carey will have the lead in "The Cave," replacing Howard Duff, who is ill. Robert Reisfelder, Pennsylvania State college; Sawyer Falk, Syracuse university; Maurice and Gnesin and Louise Dale Spoor, Goodman Mercantile theater; Ted Clark, Lawrence college; Frank Whiting, University of Minnesota, and Wilfred Ward, Evanston, Ill., will be among the speakers at the Wisconsin Idea Theater conference here Apr. 21 and 22.

The Juilliard School of Music, New York, has organized a department of dance, with Martha Hill as director. On the faculty will be Agnes DeMille, Martha Graham, Doris Humphrey, Jose Limon.

works in their original form—for unaccompanied violin—you probably know some of them through piano versions by Liszt and others. One, the 24th, is the basis of Brahms' "Variations on a theme of Paganini" and Rachmaninoff's "Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini."

DISC OF THE DAY: A most remarkable record is the LP of 11 Paganini "Caprices" by Michael Rabin, violinist who was 13 when the disc was waxed a year ago. Some of the most difficult violin music ever written, comes through with warmth, brilliance, and astounding accuracy. The boy is the son of a violinist in the New York Philharmonic - Symphony orchestra and a pupil of Ivan Galamian at Juilliard.

You can have those discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exercising or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations run to cold or wrong diet may cause undue stress on frequent urination. Don't neglect your kidneys! These conditions bother you. Try Don's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years.
