The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the proodcasters. DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

7:06 KFI.—Bob Hope in "The Great Lover" will be heard on "Screen Directors Playhouse." Rhonda Fleming, leading lady in the film, plays her original role. Hope plays chaperon to a group of boys returning from Europe. All the well known perils of shipboard travel descend upon him but he emerges victorious. 8:36 RHJ-Ben. Herbert R. O'Connor, member of the Senate's crime investigating committee, is the newsworthy guest on "Reportors Roundup." He is interviewed by newsmen John C. Cariton, Chalmers Roberts and Harold B. Hinton.

3:00 KNX—When a bookie and a loan company cashler join forces to work a racket, William Sheppard, agent of the "FBI in Peace and War," exposes their highbinding scheme.

Yes, if scientists dreams come true. According to a scientific magazine, sunshine in time will probably heat homes, run autos and even be transformed into electricity. We can't just let the sunshine into our autos, but scientists plan to raise algae which will be dried, melted and turned into gasoline. They say turned into gasoline. They say that the energy from all our coal, gas and oil combined certainly be women. Some equals the energy that the sun
