wheeled their squad car into an alley in the 3700 block of Walnut Ave. after they heard a loud, Euspicious noise at 4:15 a. m.

As they stepped out to investigate they saw the suspect climb over a fence and run in the opposite direction. Shouting for him to halt, they fired two warning shots in the air.

Four more times the officers fired shots but, although the suspect fell once, he quickly picked himself up and lengthened his lead.

At Rose Ave. and Bixby Rd. two blocks east and one block north of where the chase started the suspect jumped into a car and sped away.

The officers discovered that a garange behind the home of Williard Lesy, 3720 Walnut Ave., had been ransacked, but nothing was reported missing.

LOS ANGELES. March 31. U.B. A two-state search for William R. Stubblefield, 57, reported missing on a business trip to Nogales, Ariz., was called off today when he turned up safely in Blythe, Calif.

Stubblefield telephoned to his wife yesterday and told her another business transaction had delayed him in Blythe.

Yesterday, Mrs. O'Neill asked separate support. She said she left their Marblehead home, Feb. 1, and now is living in Boston. She charged O'Neill was cruel and abusive.

The couple, married in 1929, have a daughter, Mrs. Cynthia Stamm of Sausalito, Calif.

Two previous marriages of the playwright ended in divorce.
