Facsimile Ballot Notice of Judicial and Referendum Election

April 3, 1951

Office of County Clerk

To the Electors of Dane County:

Notice is hereby given that a Judicial and Referendum election is to be held in the several towns, wards, villages, and election precincts in the county of Dane, on the 3rd day of April, 1951, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below:

Information to Voters

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters:

(a) A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have indorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

(b) A voter may vote upon a question submitted to a vote of the people by making a cross (X) or mark in the square at the right of the answer which he intends to give.

(c) If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it is marked by the voter.

(d) After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

(e) A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability.

(f) The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

TIP O' THE MORNING: Joan Crawford makes one of her rare radio appearances Thursday in "The Damned Don't Cry" (NBC-WIBA at 9 p.m.)

* * *

On its annual Madison visit Sunday, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra had something new to offer, in addition to its familiar high quality. The extra was the appearance of Rafael Druian, concertmaster, in the Brahms violin concerto at the afternoon performance.

The audience was smaller than usual, but the 1,100 who were there tried to make up for those who weren't with great bursts of applause, another familiar feature of a Minneapolis Symphony concert. Attendance of about the same number was expected at night.

Under the music-wise direction of Antal Dorati, the men and women of the orchestra produced some great music. The mighty buildups of sound in "The Pines of Rome" recalled the Wagnerian epics of Henri Verbrugghen, conductor of a quarter-century ago.

This work and Druian's performance of the concerto were enough to make the afternoon complete. To them were added the brilliant "Roman Carnival" overture by Berlioz, with its whirling finale topping off the melodic beauty of the fore part, and Mottl's arrangement of Gretry's "Cephale and Procris" ballet music—enchanting dance tastefully played.

Druian, in his Madison bow as a soloist, showed himself a musician of virtuoso proportions. His playing of the Joachim cadenza in the first movement was a finished display of skill. But the main reaction to Druians was one of admiration for the singing tone with which he played the passionate melodies and the clarity of his work in passages for double and triple stops.

This is a noble work, and Dorati conducted it in that spirit.

The full power which he is able to draw from his orchestra was best exemplified in the sonorous finale of "The Pines of Rome," in which Respighi pictures marching armies on the Appian way. This vividly orchestrated piece gave him a chance to show other qualities, too—vivacity and humor in "The Pines of Villa Borghese," with its romping children; solemnity in "The Pines Near a Catacomb," with its religious chant, and pure beauty in "The Pines of Janiculum", in which a phonograph record recreates the singing of a nightingale.

AT THE UNION: Elliott Starks has been appointed acting art director of the Wisconsin Union to succeed Kenneth Hopkins, now curator of exhibits at the Wisconsin Historical society, according to Porter Butts, Union director.

Starks received his B.S. from the University of Wisconsin in 1943 and his M.S. here in 1946. While at the university, he was a member of the Union gallery committee for four years, was Union film chairman in 1945-46, and received the Union "Oscar" at the 1946 Smorgasbord dinner for his work.

Starks has taught arts and crafts for the past four years at the Thomas school, Tucson, Ariz., and has taught at Camp Kawaga, Minocqua, for the past six summers.

Starks' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Starks, 3509 Gregory st., Madison.
