made the rather peculiar but brilliant play of refusing to cover with his king, Declarer led a low trump to his king and returned a trump to dummy's ace, discovernig that Wast was out of trumps.

"Declarer concluded that he definitely needed a trump finesse and that he would have to hope for a 3-2 break in hearts. He therefore returned a trump from dummy, finessed the ten of spades, and drew East's last trump. He then entered dummy with the ace of clus to lead a heart. East played the ten, and South successfully finessed the queen.

A-Bid four diamonds. Your length in diamonds will reduce your partner's defensive strength, so that the opponents may well be able to make a game against you. Your bid of four diamonds should not be badly hurt and may even be made. If the opponents refuse to be made. If the opponents refuse to be that out, you have made it difficult for them to choose their best contract.
