LOOKING AND LISTENING

Hours at Camera Produce Three-minute TV Newsreel

By TOM DANSON

PROGRAMS TO CHANGE

Tonight's schedule of television programs is somewhat tentlative because of the planned program-ming of the arrival of Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Son Francisco. Whenever the general's plane arrives other programs will be can-

While you are sitting at home opening—and no audience!" A quote from Walter Kiernan in your easy chair watching the on one of his ABC "One various TV newsreels, you probably little realize the many long, hard hours that have been spent "V for victory." He continued to bring you, what possibly might with: "It's almost nine months and the probable to the amount to only three minutes time. A perfect example of this is told when KNBH covered the recent DC-3 crash, in the rugged much advice on how to butter it, Santa Barbara mountains, that can neither try to end military claimed 22 lives.

Newsreel expert, Jack Leppert, was informed of the crash at 2:50 a. m. and immediately the headed for the Goleta Air Base in Santa Barbara. There he filmed the arrival of March Field "film-happy" while the strike is rescue planes, and then chartered a prane for some air views. The Air Force ground crew and Seabees arrived, and with Leppert in tow, they hacked their way.

action nor extend it without being cautioned that these things are not in his field." These quotes were made before the MacAr. Hour shakeup, and are, "One Man's Opinion" . Everyone around KFI-TV is getting a bit film-happy" while the strike is going on, and you never know from one minute to the next, bees arrived, and with Leppert in tow, they hacked their way. bees arrived, and with Leppert in tow, they hacked their way through the jungle-like mesquite. The one-and-a-half mile journey took over two hours, and when the cameramen returned, his clothes were practically torn to shreds from the heavy brush.
