TIP O' THE MORNING: The Wisconsin-Illinois baseball games Friday and Saturday will be broadcast by

Back from a weeklong tour, the University of Wisconsin Hares- Kensington dr., and Lois Pieh, foot club opened the Madison run of its sparkling musical comedy, "Good-News," Monday night. A near-capacity audience in the Wisconsin Union theater found that the show lived up to its advance notices as one of the club's all-time bests.

Hark's voice was just right for the songs on the talk-back jukeboxes in Madison last week were (in this order) "On Top of Old Smoky," "How High the Moon." "Beautiful

Besides these features, it had fast-paced production, imaginative settings, varied and flashy costuming, and an orchestra that knew its business all the time.

Prof. John Dietrich directed the show with style and know-how training his cast to split-second timing for the fullest effect of the many laugh lines, and Conductor Don Voegeli kept it moving at a spirited rate.

While the dancing still featured (as it always should) the incredible vitality of the kick-chorus. Choreographer Kathryn Hubbard offered some new ideas, including a tango with male-costumed dummies as the "girls" partners. Top routines, however, were a breath-taking Charleston and a tap number by Sam Roth and Bob Fairman.

News" held the crowd's interest all the way — largely by reason for the performance, but partly because of such songs as "The Best Things in Life Are Free," "Varsity Drag," "Good News," and "Lucky in Love."

The show will continue nightly for last week.

The first play will be "The Gambier," written by Dostolevsky and chosen by George Abbott, Broadway producer-director, as his favorite tale. Sam Roth and Bob Fairman.

E. C. Reynolds, a pint-size actor with a natural gift for comedy, with a natural gift for comedy, easily made the hit of the evening.
