

GROMYKO REJECTS WEST'S NEW PLAN FOR BIG 4 AGENDA

PARIS, April 27 (AP) The West offered revised proposals to Andrei Gromyko today, but the big four deputies appeared deadlocked as tightly as ever in their effort to arrange a foreign ministers conference.

British Deputy Ernest Davies introduced a revised draft agenda for a ministers conference. Acting on behalf of the United States, Britain and France, he said it went a long way toward meeting the Russian point of view.

"I don't think," said Davies, "that Mr. Gromyko wants the Soviet government to shoulder responsibility for failure to have a ministers conference by turning down this agenda."

Categorical Rejection In a reply that lasted one hour and 50 minutes, Gromyko said the revised draft was unsatisfactory and then lectured Davies on the question of responsibility for failure.

"If efforts to have a conference fail," he said, "the people will judge who is guilty. Who is responsible does not depend on Mr. Davies. You cannot negotiate with the Soviet delegation in this fashion. It is not a suitable way. Now, Mr. Davies, you can put this suggestion back in your little red (dispatch) box."

Western officials who reported Gromyko's remarks pointed out that Gromyko appeared to reject the revised agenda out of hand. They said he did not say his observations were preliminary, indicating he was rejecting them without referring them to Moscow.

No New Proposals The new draft actually includes no new proposals, but seeks to marry some of the Russian proposals with the Western suggestions so that the foreign ministers should discuss.

The West maintains in the draft that the ministers should talk about such things as: The level of arms in the world. International control of arms and armed forces.

Fulfillment of treaty obligations. Elimination of the present threat of war and fear of aggression. German and Austrian treaties.

It makes a separate item out of the Italian peace treaty in the part concerning Trieste and also agrees to a Russian suggestion for examining the peace treaties with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary and four power agreements on Germany and Austria.

At Odds Over West Pact However—as Gromyko pointed out several times—it does not provide for discussion of the North Atlantic Alliance and American bases abroad.

Gromyko said it also "buries" the questions of German demilitarization and big four disarmament.

He said Russia would never agree to an agenda that does not include the Atlantic Alliance and American bases.

The West, on the other hand, says it will not agree to an agenda that does include these subjects—at least in the form that Gromyko wants them discussed, branding them as aggressive.

Bills at Local Theaters (Continued from Page Twenty-two) Miss Maxwell joins a long star-studded list of glamor-laden beauties who have co-starred with Bob Hope in his brilliant song writing team of Joy Livingston and Ray Evans, who have penned such memorable tunes as "Buttons and Bows" and "To Each His Own" wrote the score for "The Lemon Drop Kid."

"Up Front" at the Globe Willie and Joe, those famous cartoon characters of World War II, are now brought to the screen in Bill Mauldin's "Up Front," a Universal-International production now at Loew's Globe theater.

Tom Ewell portrays the role of Willie and his foxhole buddy, Joe, is played by David Wayne, Italian actress Marina Berti heads the film's large supporting cast, along with Jeffrey Lynn, Richard Egan and Silvio Minicotti, Italian character actor.

Ewell and Wayne, in their screen portrayal of Willie and Joe, manage to catch the wry and sardonic humor of Mauldin's book so vivid and popular. Preview critics claim that the comedy pair emerge as the greatest battlefield duo since Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lewis in "What Price Glory?"

"Up Front" was produced by Leonard Goldstein and directed by Alexander Hall. "Cry Danger" at Majestic "Cry Danger," a smashing motion picture production, is now showing at the Loew-Poll Majestic theater starring Dick Powell and Rhoda Fleming. With them in the cast are Richard Erdman, William Conrad, Regis Toomey and Jean Porter.

This is the exciting story of a man who is sent to prison on false charges and who on his release sets out to find those who betrayed him. Also at the Majestic is "The Company She Keeps," with a cast including Elizabeth Scott, Jane Greer and Dennis O'Keefe.
