LOOKING AND LISTENING

Ina Ray Hutton All-girl Show Filled With Sparkle

By TOM DANSON

HOLLWOOD. Ever see a little package of dynamite operate in person? If not, write to KTLA for tickets to the Ina Ray Hutton show, and your expectations of a good show are completely fulfilled.

Here is a gal with an all-girl show, which announces before telecasting, "no men allowed," but still is directed to the male Tviewer. There's still a bit of cheesecake left in the television field, even if the FCC Commissioner Freida Hennock, came out with the recommendation for less entertainment and more education for the TV field. Well, after one look, this is education! If Ina wants to call this a "manfree" show (as far as the cast is concerned), it's o.k. but a survey of Tviewers will prove differently.

Ina Ray has a load of personality and sparkle, with a radiance which makes for either motion picture or television stardom.

She was born in Chicago on the lucky day of March 13, and to this day, has considered No. 13 as her "omen". She left Chicago at the young agoe of 11, to become one of Gus Edwards "Stars of Tomorrow," specializing in the singing and dancing field. At the ripe age of 16, she formed her first-all girl orchestra, traveling to first-rate night spots all over the country. When she reached her 20th birthday, Ina decided to change to an all-male contingent, and she then toured the better night spots "in real style."

Ina Ray made her first debut into the TV field on KTLA, May 12, 1950, with her present hour-long show, which became exceedingly popular.

It should be noted that Betty Hutton and her sister, Marion, are absolutely no relation to Ina Ray Hutton. However, Ina's sister, June, is a star in her own right . . . and doing really well!

ON TV . . . The rootin' tootin' shootin' sheriff, "Cyclone Malone" returns tonight on KNBH (4) at 6:30. . . . The producer-director of the summer playhouse in the Cape Cod area appears tonight on the Faye Emerson show. He will feature a long, low curtain line . . . while Faye features the same in the neckline. KECA (7) at 6:45. . . . During the "Dixie Showboat" program. "Popcorn and Peanuts" present a new routine. This is KTLA (5) at 7:15. . . . Connie Boswell and others headline the "Cavalcade of Stars" program tonight from KTTV (11) at 7:30. . . . For a change, "Studio One" features a comedy in the title of "The Happy Housewife," which stars John Forsythe and June Dayton. All coming to you on KTSL (2) at 10.

Restraint Asked on Borrowing

WASHINGTON, May 7. (AP) Charles E. Wilson, the nation's mobilization director, has called on state and local governments to get approval before they undertake any borrowing in excess of $1,000,000.

Wilson last night asked that any state, city or county planning such borrowing first obtain clearance of the National Voluntary Credit Restraint Committee through its new regional investment banking committees.

The committee itself, a group of private bankers and others working with the Federal Reserve Board to restrict credit, said public works should be deferred unless urgently needed for public health or safety or unless directly related to defense needs.

Reds' Poll Light in Austria Vote

VIENNA, Austria, May 7. (AP) Austria's presidency — a post of much dignity but little political power — will be settled in a run-off election within the next 35 days.

The candidates will be Dr. Heinrich Gleissner, 58, a conservative civil servant representing the strongly Catholic People's party, and Dr. Theodore Koerner, 78, bearded socialist Lord Mayor of Vienna.

Gleissner was high man, with Koerner second, of six candidates in yesterday's election. Gleissner failed, however, to obtain a majority.

The election results indicated a decided antipathy toward the Communists, who polled only 5.1 per cent.

Naval Salvage Operation Brings Death to Four

EVANSTON, Ill., May 7. (AP) A Navy salvage operation ended in tragedy yesterday as four Navy men were lost in rough Lake Michigan waters. Eight crewmen were rescued.

Hundreds of spectators on the shore, several hundred yards away, saw the salvage boat ship water and sink in 10 feet of water in about 30 seconds.

The diving party, using a shallow-draft converted LCVP, had been searching for the body of Lt. Lavrene F. Nabours, 30, Lake Zurich, Ill., Navy flier, whose two-engined jet fighter crashed into the lake Friday.

At about the same spot Saturday, four Navy men in a small rubber boat were tossed into the lake while trying to spot the downed fighter. All were rescued.

Naval officers said the LCVP, a vessel used in amphibious landings, hovered over the submerged plane as a diver tried to fix a tow line to it. Unable to do so, he signaled to surface. The boat crew lowered the ramp to bring him aboard and suddenly the bow dipped, shipping water and sinking. The diver, still in his gear, sank immediately and is believed trapped under the boat.

The Navy listed three victims as Frank J. Plocki, 48, chief boatswain's mate, Albany, N. Y.; Roy J. Clark, 26, the diver, Clarksburg, W. Va., and Seaman William L. Millheim Jr., 21, Philadelphia. Plocki's body was recovered. The name of the fourth man is being withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Rita's Girls Await Mom at Lake Tahoe

GLENBROOK, Nev., May 7. (UP) Actress Rita Hayworth's two daughters today awaited the arrival of their glamorous mother at the Lake Takoe home where they will spend the next six weeks while Rita takes legal action against Prince Aly Khan.

Meanwhile, the two girls, Rebecca, 6, and Yasmin, 16 months, played around the grounds under the watchful eye of their French nursemaid, who has been with Rita for several years.

"I sure wish she would hurry up," said Rebecca, daughter of Miss Hayworth and Orson Welles. She was dressed in blue jeans and a red plaid jacket and wore her hair in pigtails with a big red hairbow.

When Yasmin was asked, "Do you wish your mommy was here?" she cooed and gurgled.

Miss Hayworth's attorneys last week refused to say whether the actress will seek a divorce or a legal separation from the prince.

Miss Hayworth was driving from New York to Nevada with an unidentified couple. She has rented the house at a price reported to be $1600 for the six weeks.

New Upsurge in Cheesecake Brings Crop of Cinderellas

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD. (AP) The film factories are working overtime to turn out a new line of Cinderellas.

The industry seemed to retreat from cheesecake during the post-war years. Pin-ups were considered "unidentified" by some spokesmen, and producers were intent on films attacking the world's problems. Also the Hollywood depression cut down contract lists, eliminating most of the young girls whose legs might bring them stardom.

The cheesecake output has increased recently, and there are signs of a full-scale revival. The reasons for this new upsurge: The need for pin-up girls for a new Army, the return to entertainment pictures in an effort to cure an ailing box office, and the demands by theater men for new personalities.

These three elements have brought renewed activity to the movie mills. Talent scouts are scouting for fresh teen-age talent. Press agents are pressing for new stunts to publicize the newcomers. Photographers are busily photographing young lovelies on the sands of Santa Monica.

With the aid of some Hollywood news and magazine photographers (who are perhaps the best judges), I have picked 10 of the most promising. They were selected for their physical attributes and their chances for stardom. Here they are:

Peggie Castle, 23, green-eyed and a nomad. Born in Appalachia, Va., she lived in more than a dozen U. S. towns. After minor roles in 10 films, she appears headed for big things.

Mitz Gaynor, vivacious cutie and a ballerina, too. Born in Chicago to a musical director and a dancer. Tall and slender, her dancing legs are among the most attractive in Hollywood.

Piper Laurie, 19, is on her way up. Fame came when she told the press she enjoyed eating flowers.

Jody Lawrence, Hollywood's most successful "unknown" actress. She has played four starring roles, but none of the films has been released.

Marilyn Monroe, graduate of the school of hard knocks. Named Miss Cheesecake of 1951 by Stars and Stripes, service paper.

Debra Paget, little girl with a big future. Hit the top with a role as the Indian girl in "Broken Arrow."

Mala Powers, a natural beauty with talent. Biggest boost: The lead opposite Jose Ferrer in "Cyrano De Bergerac."

Debbie Reynolds, atomic age flapper. Her biggest notice came when she portrayed Helen Kane, the "boop-boop-a-doop" girl.

Janice Rule, "hurry-up starlet." Grabbed from the chorus of "Miss Liberty" for a Hollywood contract.

Jan Sterling, button-nosed blonde. She made a hit in the Judy Holliday role in the Chicago company of "Born Yesterday." She's the bride of Paul Douglas.

Baltimore Vessels to Go on Alaska Run

Renamed Alaska Cedar and Alaska Spruce, the "baby Liberty" ships John L. Munson and Nathaniel Matthews have been purchased at Baltimore by Ocean Tow, Inc., and are being brought to the Pacific Coast to take the Seattle-Alaska run. The Alaska Cedar is en route and is to be followed by the Alaska Spruce, due out of Baltimore next Thursday.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

No. It seems they hardly agree on anything. A large company, interviewing 10,300 employes whom they thought were satisfied, received 41,892 complaints! The room was too hot for some, too cold for others, the lighting too dim for one, too bright for another. Some were so tall they wanted the machines raised, others so short they wanted them lowered. The company has installed a superb counselling system that has gone a long way toward getting everybody satisfied.

Answer to Question No. 2

No. Both boys and girls often use dolls as a substitute for jealousy of or affection for a new baby brother or sister. It gives them a chance to play the dominant role, and to get back at their parents for what they don't like in them. A boy, until six or seven, should have a doll if he wants one, unless all his other toys are purposely made of "girl stuff."

Answer to Question No. 3

Yes. It is the strongest force within you. It is what psychologists call your "personality picture" — the picture you wish others to have of you. Everything you do and say, all your hopes and ambitions represent your efforts to complete that picture. Experiments show that some persons have far stronger desires than others to develop a balanced, forceful personality picture. William James said (paraphrased):- For heaven's sake, choose a strong consistent personality picture and stick to it for dear life. Your destiny depends upon it.
