TIP O' THE MORNING: Don't be surprised to find "The Bickersons," which deserted radio for TV, back on the broadcast schedules soon.

About 400 University of Wisconsin musicians will play and sing for parents and guests attending the Parents' Weekend festivities, May 20, when university music school organizations give a Sunday Music hour in the Wisconsin Union theater.

The men's chorus, the women's chorus, the a cappella choir, the University chorus, the University Symphony orchestra, and the combined university bands will be heard.

Prof. Paul G. Jones, Helene Blot, Richard C. Church, and Raymond F. Dvorak will conduct the groups.

The concert will be presented by the school of music and the Wisconsin Union music committee. Jack Overton, Janesville, is the student in charge of arrangements for the committee.

The concert will be presented at 2:30 p. m. to accommodate parents after school hours and other afternoon students and other Union members may attend by presenting their Union member cards.

CONCERT: Here is the complete program of the concert which the University Men's chorus will give at 8 p. m. Sunday in Music hall.

Chorus and Julie and Juliette Gerke, pianists: "Fantasy on American Folk Ballads," Donovan.

IRMA REYNOLDS, contralto, and chorus: "Rhapsody for Alto and Men's Voices," Brahms (Jean Leonard, accompanist).

Chorus: "A Moonlit Night," Weneberg-Luvas; "All the Things You Are," Kern; "If I Got My Ticket, Can I Ride?," Shaw; "Somebody Callin' My Name," Howorth; "The Donovans," Needham-Simmons.

IN RACINE: A choral worship service will be presented by the combined choirs of the University Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in the First Presbyterian church of Racine.

Mary Elizabeth Collins, harpist, will play a pre-service program at 7:15.

Miriam Bellville will conduct the choir.

RECITAL: Lydia N. Luraas will present a group of piano pupils in a recital at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, in Esther Vilas hall.

Judy Anderson, voice student of Hulda K. Paul, will sing. Several mothers will take part on the program.

The following students will play: Shaor Alden, Judy Anderson, Navonne Barker, Sybil Kay Bentzen, Peter Clark, Aletha Collins, Dave and Donna Dennis, Carole Jo Drives, Kenneth DePrey, Mary Endres, Ann and Fay Fakler, Marcia Frater, Mavis Freidig, John Gordon, Mary Jean Hasslinger, Ardel Kingeter, Noreen Levenick, Milford Lewison, Lee and Lynn Oswald, Gail and Pat Smith, Dorothy and Saundra Schultz, Elaine Schleuter, Helen Stone, Helen Stuebe, Karen Toynton, Leah Rae Ullsvik, Geraldine Unger, and Barbara Wick.

FIRST PERFORMANCES: In its second concert of the season, the Madison String Sinfonia, under the direction of Marie A. Endres, will perform four compositions to be heard for the first time in Madison.

The "Folk Tune and Fiddle Dance" by the late Percy E. Fletcher of London is representative of the English school of contemporary composition. Another

WISC Asks FCC Give U.W. TV Channel 3

Officials of Radio Station WISC announced Friday night they had petitioned the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to allocate very high frequency (VHF) television channel 3 to the University of Wisconsin.

Students Hear of UN Success

Korea was the first time in world history that an international organization stopped a aggression, the state department's deputy director for the United Nations (UN) economic and social affairs told more than 250 delegates to a two-day UN conference on the University of Wisconsin campus Friday night.

Initial Victory in Korea Cited

James F. Green lauded the UN for its initial victory against an aggressor in the Korean war last summer.

Reds Open 2nd Chapter

Green told students that the "second chapter" began with the intervention of Red China.

2 Students, Woman Injured in Car Crash

Two University of Wisconsin students and a Madison woman were injured Friday night in a two-car accident at Mineral Point.

City Church to Hear GI on Mother's Day

Pfc. Henry Kerber, 3 N. Bryan st., home on furlough from the Mountain Home, Idaho, air base, will speak on behalf of servicemen at Mother's Day services in St. John's Lutheran church at 1:45 a. m. Sunday.

Rogge Accused of Legal Neglect

WASHINGTON (AP)—O. John Rogge, one-time head of the justice department's criminal division, was charged Friday with inexcusable neglect in looking out for the interests of a client under criminal sentence.

Court Cites Handling of Christoffel Case

The United States court of appeals, which made the charge, cited Rogge for disciplinary action by the grievance committee of the bar here. The grievance committee handles disbarment and lesser cases.

Cabinet Crisis Perils Government of South Korea

TAEGU, Korea, Saturday (AP)—A cabinet crisis, brought about by a financial scandal and a mass execution, is threatening the South Korean government while Allied forces battle to defend the republic against the Reds.
