Bill Doudna's Outdoor Drama

TIP O' THE MORNING: Olsen and Johnson are plotting a new revue, with music by Al Woodbury, conductor of radio's "Music With the Girls.'

Inspiration for tonight's production of "Everyman," English and of a treatise on harmony soon morality play of the 15th century, came from Barbara Slemmons' to be published.

"Thus," said Miss Slemmons, "we found that 7 a. m. was the most convenient, though perhaps not quite so conventional." Admission will be free.

AT WEST HIGH: With Marion Huxtable and Ernest J. Stanke conducting, West high school will give its spring concert at 8 p. m. Friday in the school auditorium. Appearing will be the a cappella choir, senior girls' triple trio, concert orchestra, a saxophone quaret, and concert band. Peter Noer will be tenor soloist in one choir number, and Ann Calhoun will be piano accompanist in another.

Members of the triple trio are Barbara Follett, Sally Topp, Pa-tricia Bohnsack, Shirley Mar-

quardt, Carole Vitale, Sue Hilgers

THE RED RAYENS

She will play "Fantasia in C Minor," Bach; "Sonata, Opus 31, No. 3," Beethoven; "Danseuses de Delphes," Debussy; "Passepied;" Debussy; "Ballade in A Flat," Chopin; "Konzertstuck," von Weber.

LECTURE: Roger Sessions, American composer, will lecture on "The University in the Musical World of Today" at 3:30 p. m. Friday in Music hall. The lecture will be free to the public.

Sessions now teaches at the University of California. He is author of "Musical Experience of "Listoner".

The University of Wisconsin senior from Madison is directing the drama, to be given at 7:15 on the steps of the Wisconsin Union theater off the Memorial Union therace. She has enlisted students from the speech and dance departments and the music school to appear in or work on the production.

Maureen Kennedy, Diane Pallett, and Sally Smith.

The saxophone quartet, composed of Loeb Aronin; Peggy Rydberg, William Yount, and Delores Wiese, will play a composition of Sybil Anne Hanks, Madison.

The program:

DANCER: Bunita Jeanne Braaten, Madison dancer, has been a busy performer the past few weeks. Her engagements have included an appearance with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra; a solo dance in Richmond, Va., on Sunday; the leading role in a ballet presented by Marymount college on Choir: "Emmitte S p i r i t u m DANCER: Bunita Jeanne Braaments and the music school to appear in or work on the production.
