Jordan a Cappella

Choir to Perform

The A Cappella Choir of Jordan High School will be presented in a concert tomorrow at the 5 p. m. vespers of First Presbyterian Church. Carl H. Robertson, director of music at Jordan High School and minister of music at Jordan Hi ganist, will be accompanist. Dr. emphasizes the eternal quality of Reuben Field Pieters, pastor, will love, according to Rev. Gabrielgive the vesper meditation.

A Whittier delegation headed by Rev. Jose Maida and Rev. Ira King, pasters of the Whittier church, will be among the special guests in Jame. They will have good news for the congregation: the building will be dedicated debt free. Prior to last Sunday this would not have hap-pened, for the local congregation which had raised $1600 was short $872 of the total cost. But. dur-
