LOOKING AND LISTENING

'Uncle Miltie's' Brothers Contribute to His Success

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. "He's crazy," mumbled Phil Berle, as he looked at a picture of his famous brother Milton, "he's just ended a 22-hour marathon in New York with all of the other things he's doing." Phil is a producer-director at NBC's Hollywood television station KNBH, and presently handles the "Uncle Archie" show and the "Bill Stulla Show."

Phil left New York for Hollywood 15 years ago to become engaged in the production end of motion pictures and joined NBC television about a year-and-a-half ago. His mother, father and grandparents were born in New York, as were your male Berle friends, Milton, Phil, Frank and Jack.

Mother Berle, who is regarded by the family as his guiding light, celebrated her 74th birthday last month and "Queenie," as she is affectionately called, plans to celebrate when she flies to Los Angeles for the end of June for a two-month vacation and visit.

Phil had a great deal to do with helping Milton up the ladder to success. He worked with him when he was but 18 years old, playing the "straight" to Milt's gags. When discussing his brother Frank, who is Milton's personal manager, Phil said, "he's not a myth, as many people think. Brother Jack, also now a California resident, is a comedy writer, with most of his scripts going to the New York Berle office.

ON RADIO. . . More trouble for "The Bickersons" as Frances Langford and Lew Parker air their new show from KNX at 6.30. . . Here is a special broadcast from Atlantic City, featuring talks during the American Medical Association Convention from 10.30-11. . . At 8.30 KHJ will air the presidential inauguration ceremony from the same conventional spot, featuring president-elect, Dr. John W. Cline. . . Two nightly features from KFI, "The Passing Parade" with John Nesbitt at 10.30, and "At Home With Lionel Barrymore" at 10.45.

Oldsters to Compete in Baking Contest

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW. . . Cary Grant finally made his walk-on appearance with Cliff Arquette and Dave Willock, as predicted by your reporter many weeks ago. Fully 30 seconds before the show on KNBH ended, a grimy tramp, clad in rags, face averted, stepped out of a freight car into camera range for a fleeting second, and was soon off-stage. Yep, it was Grant. . . Three women who have reached the age of 100 years will be especially honored at the affair, which is held semiannually. . . There are Dr. Flora Phelps, Mrs. Sgt. Andre Previn, composer-conductor, R. P. Hearns and Mrs. Mary M. Army. will appear with Ginny Simms at Fort MacArthur for the among guests to be honored.

ON TV. . . First two winners of the talent quest will appear on the "Hollywood screen Test" from KECA (7) at 7. . . There are Dr. Flora Phelps, Mrs. Sgt. Andre Previn, composer-conductor, R. P. Hearns and Mrs. Mary M. Army. will appear with Ginny Simms at Fort MacArthur for the among guests to be honored.

1. ARE WIVES SOCIALLY AMBITIOUS EVEN AT EXPENSE OF HUSBANDS HONESTY?
Answer to Question No. 1
Some wives are; but I think the vast majority are not. Some wives are almost willing for their husbands to commit murder if it will enable them to climb a few rungs higher on the social ladder. But much evidence indicates that most wives are honest and want their husbands to be the same.
Answer to Question No. 2
Emphatically yes. August Vollmer, criminal authority says everyone should ask himself: "What am I doing to promote child welfare? Do I know how efficiently reform schools are conducted? Am I promoting parent-teacher co-operation to prevent delinquency? Am I encouraging schools to hire a psychiatrist to help maladjusted children?" Unless you are doing these or similar things, Mr. Vollmer says you are a partner in every crime.
Answer to Question No. 3
No. We would be like an engine without a governor or flywheel. Psychologist William James said the most annoying person is one who has no fixed habits. He is in a continual turmoil of indecision—whether to shave or not, eat pie or ice cream, or not to eat at all. Our hooker, "How to Master Bad Habits the New and Easy Way" will help increase your will power. Sent at cost, 15c (stamp only), self-addressed, stamped envelope.
