TIP O' THE MORNING: The Sam Levenson show, an award-winner on television, may get a radio audience. CBS is considering putting a recording of the TV production on its radio network.

More than 400 dancers from 306 Madison families will appear Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the Parkway theater in the 71st anniversary recital of the Kehl School of the Dance. The programs will consist of more than 80 acts demonstrating all types of dances.

Three original ballets—"Under the Sea Fantasy," "In a Sweet Shoppe," and "Visions in Blue"—will be among the numbers. An unusually large number of boys will appear in tap and ballet dancing, according to Director Leo Kehl. All seats will be reserved; tickets have gone on sale at the Parkway boxoffice.

SACRED CONCERT: The choir of Plymouth Congregational church will give its spring concert at 10:45 a. m. Sunday in the
