Evangelical-Reformed Church to Hold Picnic

The Memorial Evangelical and Reformed church will hold its annual congregational picnic Sunday at the Hoyt park shelter house area.

The regular morning worship service will be held in the shelter house at 11 a.m.

The picnic committee is composed of Lewis Williams, chairman, Glen Dahler, and Virginia Sceliger.

Afternoon recreation is planned for adults and children. There will be a picnic stand, but members and friends are asked to bring their own picnic lunches. Coffee will be provided.

Navy Club of America Opens Session in Iowa

DAVENPORT, Ia.—(AP)—Navy men from all over the nation registered Thursday as the 14th annual reunion of the Navy Club of America opened.

Some 500 delegates to the three-day meeting were included, but the number of wives and visitors pushed the convention crowd beyond 1,000 persons.

Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT Theater TV

TIP O' THE MORNING

William Saroyan, playwright and novelist, is co-writer of "Come On a My House," song recorded by Rosemary Clooney which is expected to bound into the top-hit class.

Theater-television, transmitted by wire, may come to Madison this year, Manager Fred Reeth of the Capitol theater said Thursday.

Waukesha Postal Job Brings 16 Applications

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The post-office department Thursday announced these applicants for the postmastership at Waukesha, Wis.:

The Billboard, theatrical trade paper, said that "a string of 100 theaters or more" may well be lined up for such showings by fall.

Eight of the nine theaters involved in the test had overflowing houses and turned away many prospective ticket buyers, despite advanced admission prices. The exception was in Cleveland, where the RKO Palace reported capacity business but turned no one away.

CREW RACE

Newsreel pictures of the Marietta, O. crew race won by Wisconsin will open Saturday at the Capitol theater.

DISCS OF THE DAY

Recommended recordings:
 DePaul Infantry Chorus: "Sound Off," the best recording yet of the Duckworth chant, and "Ugly Woman," a first-rate performance of a classic calypso (Columbia).

 Alan Dale, with Percy Faith's orchestra: "A Robin and a Rainbow and a Red, Red Rose," bouncy tune, and "Tell Me," ballad (Columbia).

 Harry James orchestra: "Tango Blues," starring Harry's horn, and "When the Sun Comes Out," in which the strings shine (Columbia).

 Benny Goodman orchestra: "South of the Border" and "Down South Camp Meeting," a pair of Fletcher Henderson arrangements never before recorded (Columbia).

 Howars Keel, with David Rose's orchestra: "The World Is Mine" and "My Magic Heart," two rich offerings by the star of "Show Boat" (MGM).
