Answer to Question No. 1 Not often. A study of 12,000 married couples showed that some met in school, some in homes of friends, some through business, but a very large number used ingenuity and plain horse sense. If in doubt, send to American Institute of Family Relations, 5287 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, for two booklets, "How Boy Can Meet Girl" and "How Girl Can Meet Boy,"-10c each.

Answer to Question No. 2 Yes. Tests used by many universities tell more about your versities tell more about your success in certain subjects than you could tell after months in school or a lifetime in the University of Hard Knocks.
