The Listening Post Godfrey Off to Sit With Baruch, Ike

By ROCKY CLARK

Arthur Godfrey, who has becom one of the most amazing personal-ities of our era, is leaving today to sit in with Bernard Baruch and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower in their conferences in Paris, so his team of substitutes are taking over his various radio and TV shows until his return, scheduled for July 16.

(Godfrey was invited to the Paris get-together by Mr. Baruch himself. Dawgonnit, it wouldn't surorise us if the loveable red-head wound up as President some day. If they'd make him Secretary of State, or at least put him in charge of the Voice of America right away, betcha you'd see things begin to hum—te the disadvantage of the "Good Old Jos"). 'Good Old Joe").

Robert Q. Lewis, Old Faithful himself, takes over Godfrey's morning radio show (on CBS, 10 to 11:30 m.) while Arthur's away, Herb Shriner, who is to be Godfrey's vacation substitute on the Monday night "Talent Scouts" show, will do the subbing next Monday night. Frank Parker will emcee Godfrey's Wednesday night TV show next week.

LADY LAWYER STORY

Marcadas McCambridge, "Oscar" winning film actress, will play the leading role in "De-fense Attorney", new dramatic thriller starting on WNAB-ABC tomorrow at 8 p. m. She will portray a successful young female attorney in the weekly series being written by Joel Murcott and Cameron Blake.

TEENAGERS ARE BARRED

SAN DIEGO. Calif., July 5—(AP) Reports of teenagers carousing at marijuana and drinking parties brought a shutdown today at the Mexican border between here and Tijuana. Mexican authorities said last night the border gates have been closed to unescorted
American boys and girls under 18.
