Oregon Ballot Pits Ike Against Truman

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11. (4P) President Truman vs. Gen. Eisenhower. Gen. MacArthur vs. Sen. Wayne L. Morse of Oregon. That is the proposed line-up for the Oregon presidential primary ballot next year.

The President and Eisenhower would be on the Democratic ballot, MacArthur and Morse on the Republican ticket.

Eisenhower's was the latest name advanced for the test. State Sen. Thomas R. Mahoney, a Port land Democrat, says he is having petitions printed to put the general's name on the ballot.

Since much of Zeeman's advertising has been devoted to explaining how a factory-to-you operation lowers the cost of a suit of clothes, it's only natural that many people come to Zeeman's initially because of their low prices. They usually know nothing of the quality, the style, and the fit of a Zeeman suit before they come in.

But when they come back to Zeeman's for their next suit (most of them do), then we know they're not coming back for low prices alone.

We know they were pleased with Zeeman's fine fabrics, quality workmanship, and proper styling. We know they liked our large selections and our skilled fitting. We know that they've come back because they like Zeeman's. Not just because of Zeeman's low prices alone.

9 P. M. Let's Explore Your Mind

Answer to Question No. 1 I ask this for two reasons:

First, because nobody knows; second, to bring out the surprising fact that adopting parents, almost without exception, want a girl. A study by Leipzig psychologist Margarete Zur Nieden found that 74 per cent of adopted children were girls and 26 per cent boys. Whether boys were adopted because parents couldn't get girls is unknown; but Dr. Nieden says "universally, parents prefer girls to boys for adoption." Most parents agree that girls are easier to rear. What a pity all boys are males and vice-versa.

Answer to Question No. 2 Yes, because heart disease is a psychological as well as a medical problem. In "You and Your Heart" Dr. H. M. Marvin lists such false beliefs: the heart is a delicate organ; a heart wound is fatal; "heart disease" is hereditary, therefore fatal. Many believe they have "heart disease" who haven't; many have it and don't know it. Send 10c in coin to American Heart Association, 1775 Broadway, New York City for the booklet, "The Heart of the Home." Picture Edition. Answer to Question No. 3
