LOOKING AND LISTENING

Dennis Day Loaded With Dollars—25,000 of Them

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD—Now I can have a vault just like Jack Benny's," said Dennis Day, as he linked a contract calling for $25,000 to be paid to him in silver dollars.

This contract, which is probably one of the largest amounts to be paid to an entertainer for a two-week personal appearance, was offered to Day by a Reno, Nev., hotel, and the silver dollar stipulation has been a lifelong ambition of Dennis Day. Ever since childhood, he has had the desire to have a large number of silver dollars all at one time, and in one big pile.

Dennis, a very serious minded fellow, never gives his voice a chance to "slip," as he daily takes voice lessons, then rehearses over two hours. He says this is for the purpose of keeping his voice stable, and to build additional voice quality and richness.

Probably one of the most versatile singer-comedians on the air today, he soon will have a television show of his own variety type with guests and, of course, Dennis himself, clowning around with his well-known mimicry. His "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day" has been canceled and will not return to the air this fall.

Day, whose real name is Owen Patrick McNulty, lived in New York until September, 1939, when he won an audition over 500 other applicants for the Jack Benny show. "It was when I was spoken to by Mr. Benny and answered 'yes, please' during the audition, that helped clinch the deal," Dennis said. Although Benny and Mary liked Day's audition, it still was not an easy matter to get to pass on him. With a round-trip ticket in his pocket, paid for by Benny, Dennis traveled to California to perform for the rest of the show. The return stub was turned in unused, Dennis had a job!

Twelve years ago, Dennis was an unknown, with the ambition to become a lawyer. Today, he is kept very busy in pictures, radio, television, recordings, personal appearances and music publishing. His latest recording of "Mr. and Mississippi" has gone well over the half-million mark already.

All signed with Benny for the forthcoming year, Dennis said: "I'll be back with Jack in September."

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW... Phil Harris will leave Hollywood July 25 to attend a celebration in his native Nashville, Tenn., which is called "Phil Harris Day."

ON TV... Here is a new time for the "Watch and Win" series, when it is shown on KTLA (2) at 7... Charles Ruggles is about to be investigated. It revolves around the newborn baby left at his home and will happen during his show from KECA (7) at 7:15.

ON RADIO... The L. A. police bureau detail is assigned to get the goods of vicious television rapistmen who fraud unsuspicious TV set owners during the airing of "Dragnet" on KFI at 6... A brilliant scherzo, from the Beethoven "Symphony No. 7 in A Minor" will be presented on "Symphonette" from KNX at 7... "The New Frontier," a dramatic series presented by the Institute of Democratic Education will be aired by KECA at 9:30.

FLUNK COURSE

Marblehead Mutt Stay After School

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., July 12. (AP) The dogs of this town are going to learn to get along with each other—or stay after school.

The selectmen last night issued the chamber of commerce a permit to establish a school where dogs will be taught good manners and how to get along with one another.

The course of instruction was decided on after two errand dogs were sent to a private dog school after complaints to the selectmen.

A town official said the dogs flunked the course and last night were ordered restricted for 30 days.
