Two Wounded as Bank Holdup Fails

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 14. (AP) One would-be bank robber shot another yesterday, and a policeman shot a man who was on the side of the law. Both wounded men survived.

Police said ex-coonvicts Theodore N. Sikora, 37, and Joseph Palame, 41, had just entered a branch bank of the Marine Trust Co, when Palame's gun went off accidentally. Sikora, wounded in the back, was considered in fair condition today.

Palame helped Sikora to his feet and the pair fled. They forced Norman Drum, 39, of Emporium, Pa., to drive them away in his station wagen. When they in his station wagon. When they had gone a few blocks, Sikora took the wheel, despite his wound, and Palame held a gun at Drum's

As the vehicle sped northward out of the city, police forced it to the curb. Police Inspector Martin J. Feinen of the town of Tonawanda said ne saw a glint from a pistol as Drum bent over in the back of the wagon, and the inspector thought Drum was the robbers' accomplice, ready to fire. Feinen shot Drum twice.

later learned that Drum had been trying to grab Palame's gun. Drum, an electrical contractor, was reported in fair condition aft-er four hours on an operating
