The Senate Crime Investigating committee having focused the nation's attention on the narcotic evil, network radio is now turning its attention to the drug menace. But the pioneering in 12.00 Noo this field has already been done in Connecticut by Hartford's WTIC which proved instrumental in bringing about passage of 12 the state's tough new narcotic law.

In fact, the story of Connecticut's? new law will be included in the series, "The Truth About Narcotics," to be heard over NBC's radio network the next three Sundays on the "Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow" program at 1 pm. (rebroad cast by WTIC at 6:30).

Pulitzer Prize winner Malcolm Johnson, veteran INS crime reporter, will conduct interviews with nameotics experts, addicts and others, including Lucky Luciano (interviewed in Italy). Experts will discuss the dope problem, what is being done to control it and what can be done to eliminate it as a nationfirst program to "The Narcotic Evil" Thursday night at 8 30 Included will be tape-recorded screams of a marijuana addict run-

BIG FIGHT ON CBS

Although the Dument televis-ion network "bought" the radio and TV rights to the heavy-weight championship fight between Exzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott, CBS will provide the radio coverage Wednes-day at 10 pm, with Steve Allia at the mike. 'Mr. and Mrs. North' Five Years

Alice Frost and Joseph Curtin, sters of the popular mystery series, "Mr. and Mrs. North," in which they play a pair of amateur detec-tives, are beginning their fifth year on the CBS network.

Ralph Sutton, the amazing young jazz pianist from St. Louis, has produced two more long-playing records, both of which are excellent additions to any collection and further demonstrate the amazing versatility of this ex-GI ivory tickles, For Columbia, he has recorded a group of Fats Waller tunes, and for Commodore he has waxed a Bix Beiderbecke Suite and group of "Piano Portraits".

The Commodore disc is a 12-incher. The Beiderbecke side contains Sution's inspired performances of "In the Dark", "Flashes", "Candleernistic piano compositions of the fabulous young trumpeter Bix who died in his twenties. On the other side, Sutton presents his original "Boogle Joys" and such pop favorites as "Them There Eyes Louisine", "When You're Smiling", "Squeeze Me" and "Three Little Wolds".

On Columbia's 10-meh disc. Sutton demonstrates the Waller influ-ence as he plays delightful interpretations of several Fats originals. "Keepin' Out of Mischief Now", Turning Grey", "Alligater Crawl", "Ain't-Cha' Glad?", "Sheltered by the Stars", "Viper's Drag", "Blue "Take It from Me" and "Clothesime Ballet". (In his previous "Plano Moods" sibum for Columbia, Sutton included two other Waller tunes Waltz".

Earl Hipes, pioneer of the modern jazz piano style, has produced a new "Piano Moods" LP for Columbis, including three mood pieces,
"Velvet Moon", "These Foolsh
Things" and an original, "When I Think of You". He does "Deed I Do" as a jump tune, displays an amazing wealth of ideas on "I Hadn't Anyone But You" and 'Diane", then tops off the platter with his two ever popular originals, "Rosetta" and "You Can Depend on Me".

Max Miller, talented Chicago pianist who once played guitar and
