

Mission Presents Petition at Meet

During the sessions of the annual Synod of California of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., held this week on the Asilomar campground, Pacific Grove, the petition of the new Presbyterian mission congregation in Lakewood was presented to members of the Presbytery of Los Angeles for approval.

Former Resident Is Guest Speaker at Two Services

Rev. William A. Grubb, former Long Beach man, now pastor in New Jersey, will be the preacher for the morning and evening services at Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Music Minister Assumes Post

Daniel G. Cheuk, newly appointed minister of music at Calvary Baptist Church, began his duties this week.

Metaphysical Talk

Dr. Carl Richard Minugh, lecturer, will give his lecture on "Metaphysics-Mental Creation Through Consciousness" at the Sunday afternoon service at 2:30 p. m. in the Chapel in the sky.

Pasadenan to Preach at First Presbyterian

Rev. T. Ross Paden, minister of the Council of Churches of Pasadena, will be the guest preacher tomorrow morning at First Presbyterian Church.

Navy Oil Tanker Is Honor Vessel

Families and relatives of officers and men of the USS Panamskip, Navy oil tanker, are especially invited to the 3 p. m. divine service at Navy Family Chapel, 451 W. Ocean Blvd., Sunday.

Young Adult Group to Hear Piano Duo

Patricia Maitland and Vernon Overmeyer, duo pianists, will present a musical program for the meeting of the Young Adult Group of First Methodist Church tomorrow at 5:45 p. m.

Churchmen Enroll in Medical Course

Elder Robert Greiner of 4433 Snowden Ave., Lakewood Plaza, and Elder and Mrs. Daniel Guild of 1767 Santa Fe Ave. enrolled this week in a "medical evangelism" course at the Loma Linda School of Tropical and Preventive Medicine.

Lutheran Church to Open School

Trinity United Lutheran Church will hold its annual daily vacation Bible school starting Monday and closing Aug. 10.

Church School at Costa Mesa

Daily vacation church school will open Monday at the Community Methodist Church, Costa Mesa, continuing through Aug. 10.

Norwalk Mission to Mark First Year

The Episcopal Church of the Incarnation, holding services in the American Legion Hall in Norwalk, announces that tomorrow the service will be at 10 a. m. instead of 11:15, because of the observance of the mission's first anniversary.

Tent Revival Opens Final Week Sunday

An old-fashioned revival, with Tommy Hicks, 35, evangelist, will open its closing week tomorrow in the big circus tent at Atlantic Ave. and Artesia St.

China Missionary at First Methodist

Tomorrow morning Dr. E. Pearce Hayes, on furlough from Poochow, China, will be the guest speaker at First Methodist Church in Compton in the absence of Dr. John N. Ashley, pastor, on vacation.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.

Pomona Assistant to Be Guest Here

Rev. Charles W. Scott, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Pomona, of which Rev. Thomas Riley Marshall is rector, will be guest clergyman at St. Luke's Episcopal Church for holy communion and morning prayer tomorrow.

Assistant Health Officer Named

Dr. Joseph Preitler has been named assistant health officer in charge of the division of preventive medicine by Dr. D. Litwack, city health officer.

SLIM WAISTS Paris Styles For 'Wasps'

PARIS, July 28. (AP) The little woman with the little waistline is in luck this season, audiences at fashion show openings noted today.

Going to Michigan

Rev. Bernard C. Brewster, pastor of Garden Grove Methodist Church, will visit his native state of Michigan next week for the first time in 52 years, when he with the Brewster family go on their annual vacation.

Guest Speaker

Allan Eric Hutchings, executive director of Youth for Christ in England, will be guest speaker tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Grace Baptist Church, McDonald and Sandison Sts., Wilmington, according to the pastor, Rev. Homer J. Aspy.

Special Speaker

Michael Billister, former missionary in Russia, will be the special speaker on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Barber City Union Community Church, Billister is connected with the Russian Refugee Organization at El Monte.

Research Plan to Right Overturned Raft, Continue

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 28. (AP) The Lethargia is still at Round Bottom, and bottom-side-up.

Students Really Travel to LBCC!

Students from 71 different colleges, universities and junior colleges attended the most cosmopolitan summer session in Long Beach City College history, it was discovered yesterday by registrars on the Lakewood campus.

Packers Close Plant Because of Iowa Flood

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 28. (AP) John Morrell & Co., meat packers, announced today that the firm will not reopen its flood-damaged plant at Topeka, Kas., because it would cost too much to rehabilitate it.

Denver Police Hunt Attacker

DENVER, July 28. (AP) Mayor Quigg Newton early today ordered police into an all-out, 24-hour-a-day attempt to find the attacker of two teen-agers who were assaulted and injured critically.

Wanted Sign Off Nazi Daredevil

STUTTGART, Germany, July 28. (AP) Former Nazi storm trooper Otto Skorzeny, who once rescued Benito Mussolini and later spearheaded the 1944 Ardennes counter-offensive, no longer has a wanted sign on his head.

Briton to Speak at Calvary Baptist

Erick Hutchings, director of Youth for Christ in England, and the speaker for YFC Saturday night at Poly High auditorium, will address the Sunday morning worship service at 10:45 o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church, South St. and Lime Ave.

Warren Deplores Hysteria in Dealing With Communies

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP) Gov. Earl Warren says that he would cut off his right arm before encouraging communism in schools, but says that common sense and not hysteria must guide the ousting of Communists from California campuses.

Santa Fe Railroad's Main Lines Reopened

The main lines of the Santa Fe Railroad to Chicago are open following the recent floods in Kansas and Missouri, L. E. Vinson, Long Beach division passenger agent, has been informed.