WASHINGTON. — (P) — Pres

Truman Monday vetoed proposals

(1) to increase pensions of war veterans disabled by non-military causes and (2) to grant broader pensions to some veterars' widows.

would cost the government $16,-700,000 for the first year alone.

He figured the first proposal

It would have increased some pensions from $60-$72 a month to Compensation for veterans disabled as a result of military service is not affected.

The other bill he vetoed would lave removed dependency as a requirement for payment of non-service-connected death pensions to widows of veterans they married some 20 to 40 years after the wars

Those conflicts were the Civil war, Indian wars, Spanish American war, the Boxer Rebellion, and Philippine insurrection.

Year in

in which they fought.
