HOLLYWOOD — Plans are under way for a Tversion of the Luigi show, which on radio has captured the hearts of the radio audience, coast-to-coast. "The little immigrant" who is so expertly played by J. Carroll Naish, probably will keep the entire cast for the TV show which will be auditioned in the very near future. This radio show is a natural for television, as most of the cast on radio dress the part for both the rehearsal and the actual show. This is partly for audience reaction, and also to help in characterization delivery. Naish wears clothing exactly like an Italian immigrant, new in this country, would be expected to wear, and other characters in the cast also are in authentic costumes. Thus, the television of "Life With Luigi" would offer very few problems for the CBS TV producers and directors. A very interesting fact noted regarding this particular show is that a total of 177 years of show business experience is represented in the combined careers of its regular cast members who are veterans of every medium of the entertainment field, from motion pictures, radio and the stage, to vaudeville, nightclubs, stock companies and carnivals. J. Carroll Naish, who stars as Luigi, started in show business 30 years ago as a song plugger, while Alan Reed (Pasquale) made his debut 30 years ago at the age of 14, carrying a spear in the French Opera Co. owned Conreid (Schultz) started in summer stocks in Connecticut 17 years ago, in the same year that Ken Peters (Olson) began working in radio in Minnesota. Jody Gilbert (Pasquale's daughter, Rosa) debuted 31 years ago, at the age of 4, in vaudeville, while Mary Shipp (Miss Spaulding, the school teacher) started her career in Hollywood 20 years ago as a child in a stock company. ON RADIO... Reporter Al Gaskill, of the Helena, Mont., Independent, will receive the "Big Story" award tonight during the airing from KFI at 7... The corpulent crime capturer, "The Fat Man," brings another of his interesting stories to your loud-dramatic presentations from KEJZ ways on the recommended list is at 8:30.

Answer to Question No. 1: Possibly, in reference to this question I have reviewed 145 technical articles and they give the impression that happily married couples run somewhat more toward the extrovert patterns of personality. However, all studies agree that it is money, the happy, stable, grownup people who make happy marriages—whether introverts or extroverts. Our booklet, "How to Be an Emotional Grownup, will help you decide if you are old enough to marry—whether 18 or 70. Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only), self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2: Yes, far more. The late Frederick Adams Woods, in his book, "The War Diminishing?" showed that between 1496 B. C. and 1861 A. D.—the beginning of our Civil War—there were collectively 3130 years of major wars going on somewhere, and only 227 years when practically the whole world was at peace. The most discouraging fact is that wars have been steadily increasing in intensity and number of people involved, while the years of peace have been decreasing. Since we live on only this little planet to live on, it seems a pity we cannot live in peace.

Answer to Question No. 3: The statement is false. Anyone with an IQ of around 100—which is average intelligence—can learn anything he or she wants to learn. Males learn math slightly better than females but not enough better to give the latter an inferiority complex.
