Detroit Industrialist Admits 'Pay Off' in Arsenal Deal

DETROIT — (UP) — Industrialist Joseph Wiesner told Wednesday that he paid $1,800 to an ex-convict who was supposed to use the money to "pay off" an official at the army's huge Detroit tank arsenal.

Wiesner said he gave the money to "five percenters" Wayne Campbell with the understanding that it would be paid to "someone" at the arsenal for help in obtaining defense contracts.

Wiesner, owner of the Fairfield Engineering Co., said he got "several" contracts after giving Campbell the payoff money.

A congressional subcommittee met in Detroit last month to investigate irregularities at the arsenal, and Brig. Gen. David Crawford was relieved of his command as head of the big tank-producing center.

At the congressional hearing, Wiesner testified that he had never made any bribes to get defense contracts. However, when the Wayne county assistant prosecutor Ralph Carben threatened to file conspiracy charges against him, Wiesner admitted giving the money to Campbell.

Campbell has been charged with defrauding P. L. Grissom and Son, Inc., out of $56,185 for automotive parts he failed to deliver. The firm had intended to sell the parts to the arsenal.

Wayne county authorities earlier swore out warrants against three Detroit handbook operators, charging them with conspiracy to violate state gambling laws.

Campbell said all the money he got from Grissom was squandered on horse race bets and endorsements on his checks have been traced to the three bookies, Frank McDonald, Henry Herriek, and George Thomas.

Chicago Driver Fined for Striking Officer

Striking a traffic officer and locking himself in a squad car Tuesday cost a 30-year-old Chicago man a $25 fine or 30 days in the county jail Wednesday.

Roy Delbert Pine, charged with disorderly conduct, was given the sentence by Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor.

Dane County Traffic Officer Robert Waldron said he attempted to take Pine to jail following a traffic accident Tuesday. Pine had run into a ditch in the 3500 block of E. Washington ave.

Waldron said he was getting out of the squad car at the jail when Pine struck him. Then as Waldron got out of the car Pine locked the two car doors and refused to leave.

Waldron got one of the doors open by reaching in a partially opened car window and forced Pine out of the jail.
