Hollywood Plans Benefit for Stricken Cameraman

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. Even as cold and hard as Hollywood might seem, when someone deserving needs help, it usually winds up in an all-out affair. Such is the case for Frankie Filan, veteran AP and Wide World photographer who was a wartime hero, and is perhaps the best known lensman on the Hollywood scene. With the AP for 22 years, and well known in radio and television circles, Frankie figures in some half dozen war books published since the close of World War II, and won a Pulitzer Prize for his pictures of action with the Marines on Tarawa. He experienced several plane crashes and forced landings, made virtually every major invasion in the Pacific during the war, and now is at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital, where he recently underwent brain surgery for cancer. Hollywood radio, television and newspapers are out en masse to assure a bang-up event to be held for the benefit of the lovable little guy. Twentieth Century-Fox has offered the new picture, "No Highway in the Sky," starring Jimmy Stewart and Mariette Dierich, while Metro-Goldwyn Mayer has offered their new picture, "An American in Paris." The final choice for the event has as yet been decided upon. Walt Disney is giving one of his latest unreleased cartoons to help with the affair. The Fox-West Coast Theater group has donated the Carthy Circle Theater for the benefit, which will be held Wednesday evening, Aug. 22. It's rumored that the Lonesome Gal is looking for a male counterpart, a possible Lonesome Guy. Still, say I would like to hear and see a Lonesome Gal versus Continental (KNBH). ... Jack Kirkwood and his zany crew rush through the audience each day and dance with all comers as a new gag for audience pleasure. ... Boxing, weight lifting, skipping rope and calisthenics all are on the daily program set for Mario Lanza in order to keep his very easily gained weight down. ... Don McNeill never has to look at a clock to know when it's time to sign off his daily "Breakfast Club" program. "I just look at the women in the audience," he reveals. "They begin putting on their shoes."

ON RADIO... Baseball greats of the past will link up today's greats when "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" airs from KFI at 12 noon. ... The finals of the 14th annual All-American Soap Box Derby, with 150 teenage champions hurtling down the gravity track will be aired by KNX at 1:30. ... Ezio Pinza will be guest soloist with the NBC Symphony Orchestra from KFI at 5:30. Fritz Reiner conducts a gala new show, "Private Party," bows in on KECA tonight at 7:30, with Bob Shannon as emcee. It's a party crashing tour with a tape recorder. ... Michiel Guida, tenor, is special guest soloist for the KHJ airing of "Chicago Theater of the Air" at 9:30.
