Nelson, who was wanted for quizzing Friday, was said by his associates to have gone fishing.
However, the committee had from them deduced that the Ritchie, Md., man, who calls him self a "gentleman farmer." was involved in a numbers racket which grossed $45,000 to $50,000 a week in recent years.

Nelson admitted to the committee last month that he "had an idea" he was connected with numbers gambling.
