The Sunday Spotlight So This Is Autumn (on Radio)

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA (State Journal Radio Editor) Notice that tang in the air? The changing colors in the leaves? The scent of bonfires?

They ought to be here, because—in radio—fall approaches. The first breath of autumn air reached us Friday and Saturday nights with broadcast of two football games, always sure signs of fall.

Besides that, the fall-and-winter radio season will start in a little more than a week—Monday, Aug. 27—when regular programs will begin returning to the air.

All for football! All University of Wisconsin games will be on WIBA, WISC, WKOW, WHA-FM, WIBU, and WJCF beginning Saturday, Sept. 29. In addition, WIBA will carry the Green Bay Packers schedule starting Sunday, Sept. 30.

In addition, WKOW will broadcast portions of the Columbia network's weekly "Football Roundup" Sept. 29. This is a series of on-the-spot pickups of games around the country. It will follow the Badger games on WKOW.

The Mutual network will begin its football coverage a week earlier, Sept. 22. Among the new programs booked for Madison stations is "Bold Venture," an adventure series starring Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall. It will be on WIBA Thursday nights beginning Sept. 6.

Several programs now heard only through Chicago stations will be on Madison outlets this season. Among them are "Lorenzo Jones," "Let's Pretend," "Our Gal Sunday," "Romance of Helen Trent," and "Stars Over Hollywood."

The dates for openings and reinstatements have been fairly well lined up. Here they are, as of today: SUNDAY Sept. 2—Corliss Archer returns—CBS-WKOW.

Sept. 9—Louella Parsons returns—ABC-WISC. Sept. 9—Drew Pearson returns—ABC-WISC. Sept. 9—Jack Benny returns—CBS-WKOW (or Oct. 14).
