Kefauver Wants No Presidential Petitions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP Insisting he is not a candidate, Sen. Kefauver (D. Tenn.) says he has asked supporters to stop circulating petitions to put him in the Oregon primary as a Presidential candidate.

He told a reporter yesterday that on a recent trip to Oregon he told friends, "I wasn't a candidate" and "asked them to stop cir-culating petitions to put my name on the ballot."

Sen. Douglas (D.-III.) has taken a similar step, but his supporters have said they will go ahead any-

1951 by John F. Dille Co. YOUR OPINION Answer to Question No. 1 Yes. Probably, A color-consultant visited 750 homes in one city and found that those in which there were three or more children were decorated in gay, lively colors. All homes of childless couples were decorated in sombre color schemes. Homes of couples having one or two chil-dren were decorated in between. It may be that couples with plenty of children are gayer and more cheerful than those with few or none.
