LOOKING AND LISTENING

Radio-TV Popularity Poll Extended for One Week

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD — My sincere thanks to all readers who have been sending in the ballots appearing each Monday and Wednesday in this column. The great big bundles of mail were really swell. Some questions included on the ballot asked why a sports listing was omitted. Under the classification of "Sweepstakes" for both radio and television, any favorite show of yours can be voted for even if not in the four listed program classifications.

The way returns are coming in a really accurate poll of reader opinion on programs will result. Thanks again, and keep them coming, as with the extension of time, two more ballots will appear next week for the final count.

Once again the big hassle is on with the various television stations for coverage rights for the forthcoming Japanese Peace Treaty Conference and the actual signing. A couple of the nets have signed for exclusives for varied days. However, if the State Department intervenes, this exclusive will be to no avail but will turn out to be a pool for all stations.

ON TV... A movie as late as 1949, titled "Red Desert" will be shown on KTLA (5) at 7:30. Comedian Ben Blue and vocalists Fran Warren and Betty Riley will guest on "Stop the Music" from KECA (7) at 8:30. Sarah Churchill recently returned to this country from her native England, will do a dramatic skit on the James Melton show from KNBH (4) at 8:30. One of the few amateur boxing arenas left in Southern California, South Gate, presents a card from KTTV (11) at 8:30. A film re-broadcast of the hot middleweight bout between Ray Robinson and Jake Lamotta will be shown over KTLA (5) at 10.

ON RADIO... Lots of boxing tonight, as Joey Maxim defends his title against Bob Murphy in a 15-rounder over KNX at 7. Otto Kruger is host and Don DeFore is starred in the "Family Theater" presentation of "Seeds of Promise" from KHJ at 8:30. Authentic and factual happenings of our presidents of the past are dramatized by Edward Arnold in "Mr. President" over KECA at 9. "The Case of Change for a Hundred" is presented tonight over KFI at 9:30, when "Mr. District Attorney" is aired.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

1. THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART IS THROUGH HIS STOMACH.

2. IS IT WISE TO TELL AN ALCOHOLIC THAT HE CAN NEVER DRINK AGAIN?

3. CAN YOU SUE FOR BREACH OF PROMISE IN ALL STATES?

TRUE FALSE

Answer to Question No. 1
 The statement is largely true. Dr. Haggard and Greene, Yale University nutrition experts advocate five or six meals a day—especially a good breakfast and a bedtime snack. Eat what you want each time, but you won't want much. This not only keeps your energy but also your good temper flowing evenly. I interviewed the doctors on one occasion and their motto was, "When tired, blue or irritable, eat." Anyhow, as Kin Hubbard, Indiana humorist, said, "Whenever heard of a man getting a divorce from a good cook?"

Answer to Question No. 2
 No. Alcoholics Anonymous—called the "24-hour program"—tells a new member that "anyone can go without a drink for 24 hours." You can endure anything one day—even give up your pet worries and fears. But to tell an alcoholic that he can never take a drink again discourages him. However, he knows that "one day" is within his power. The next day he knows he can do it again. This idea has induced many to join A. A. or to take other treatments.

Answer to Question No. 3
 No. "Handbook for Marriage" lists eight states in which "heart balm" suits are
