Answer to Question No. 2

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Yes. Sociologist W. A. Ander-Yes. Twenty-five years ago son, Cornell University, examthe Progressive Teachers Assn. developed the "Needs Theory of Education" that children will not develop in learning, personality '20, and '21. Of the men, 93 per or right behavior if their emocent had married (10 per cent tional needs are not satisfied. There are thousands of emotional needs, but the most common ones not fulfilled are: belonging; love and affection; economic security; achievement; freedom from fear; freedom from guilt; sharing; understanding. Unless your child's basic needs are met it will never be the child you want it to be. Answer to Question No. 3 Women, probably. A psychologist had 184 men and 214 women check their likes and dislikes among college graduates.

CVO Needs Nurse With Spare Time in Volunteer Job

KFI at 8:30.

By MURIEL POWERS

If you are a registered nurse with a little spare time, the Com-munity Volunteer Office can use One of the Long Beach hospitals would like a registered nurse to be on call in an emergency to sit with a patient for an hour This would be only very occasionally. Yet when the emergency does arise, the hospital would like to have a nurse available. Why not volunteer for this important job today? Call CVO at 70-1434 for further details or come to the Red Feather Building at 1213 Cedar Ave. where Mrs. Clara Andrews will be happy to interview you. CVO is open every week day from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m.

Homes Prices to Rise, Institute Head Says

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10. (P)
The price of homes is going to go higher within the next six months.

So predicts Milton J. Brock, president of California Home Builders Institute. In an interview, he added that production of far below the record 1,400,000 homes started in 1950.
