the East, as well as the many big Broadway programs, you'll want to have television's finest picture in your living room on a General Electric Black Daylite television set!

G-E sets symbolize quality — the heritage of General Electric quality that goes all the way back to the days of Thomas Edison. G-E Black Daylite Television gives you brilliant picture detail on large screens, automatic sound, the kind of construction that puts an end to service headaches, and the power that assures reception in fringe areas where other sets often fail! You can put your confidence in General Electrici

1. IS THE WOMAN WHO IS HUSBAND HER WAY" AN EXCEPTION AMONG WIVES ? 51 by John F. Dillo Co. YOUR OPINION

I doubt it, because no mere man ever knows when his wife is etting him have her way about things. A wife does this as skilfully as a card sharp skins a sucker. Remember the old saying: "A sucker is born every minute and two sharpers to take him." If a husband is born every minute, there must be two wom-"take him" and make him think he is having his way, when he is really having theirs. Of course, no finite male man will

Answer to Question No. 1

Answer to Question No. 2
Probably not. Psychologists tested 54 college students and concluded that "individuals who prefer swing music are decidedly inferior in pitch, rhythm and time to those who prefer classical music." The old-fashioned Camp Meeting hymns I was reared on are my favorites. I don't know what this indicates.

ever know.

Answer to Question No. 3 Yes, at least pictures of words.

YES [7]

almost the only way you learn o spell is by remembering the sicture of the word. That is why honetic spelling tends to make poor spellers. The only way you learn to spell "night" that way instead of "nite" is because you remember the picture of the word, not the sound. The same with hosts of words. Our book-"How to Increase Your Vocabulary, Think Better, and Spell Perfectly, With Vocabulary Test," sent at cost, 15c (coin only), plus self-addressed stamped envelope.
