LOOKING AND LISTENING

Three Big Shows on TV Tomorrow From New York

Three of television's biggest shows will be seen "live"—direct from New York—by west coast viewers for the first time tomorrow.

Through the miracle of coaxial cable and microwave relay, the "All-Star Revue," "Your Show of Shows" and "Your Hit Parade" will provide three solid hours of television entertainment straight from Broadway to the millions of TV screens in the west.

The Saturday night schedule is as follows:

"All-Star Revue," starring Jack Carson, 5 to 6 p. m.; "Your Show of Shows," starring Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca, 6 to 7:30 p. m.; "Your Hit Parade," starring Snooky Lanson, 7:30 to 8 p. m.

In future weeks, "All-Star Revue" will feature Jimmy Durante, Danny Thomas and Ed Wynn. "Your Show of Shows," the weekly Broadway revue produced by Max Liebman, features top entertainers of stage and screen, in addition to the incomparable comedy antics of Caesar and Miss Coca. "Your Hit Parade," recently featured in Life Magazine, is noted for the elaborate production numbers it builds around the top tunes each week.

Japan Warned on Defense Task

TOKYO, Sept. 28. (AP) U. S. Ambassador William J. Sebald warned Japan today it must carry part of the burden involved in maintaining its own security.

Sebald told the America-Japan Society "the time is rapidly approaching when new decisions of great importance must be made. I believe Japan will add its strength to the growing forces of freedom."

The Japanese government distributed a paper Wednesday declaring the U. S. security treaty does not require it to rearm. That "must depend on Japan's own judgment," it added.

Missionary Groups Attend Conference

Members of the Women's Missionary Societies of Trinity and Faith United Lutheran Churches of Long Beach and Lakewood United Lutheran Church, Rev. George Nichols of Santa Ana Church and Russell Weberg from Trinity Church, will attend combined meetings of the Northern and Southern Conferences of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of California (ULCA) Monday and Tuesday at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary.

Brotherhood Social

The Men's Brotherhood of St. Paul's American Lutheran Church will have a fish fry at the church, 1429 Clark Ave., tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock, with Carl G. Popken, Brotherhood chairman, as chef. A color sound film, "Speaking of Rubber," will be shown.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

1. IS THE GRANDMOTHER OF TODAY CONSIDERED AN "OLD WOMAN"? YES NO

2. DO MOST PEOPLE KNOW HOW TO REST? YES NO

3. ARE WE WAGING PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE TO THE BEST OF OUR ABILITY? YES NO

4. HOW TO RELAX

By Albert Edward Wiggam, D. Sc. This superb 24-page booklet sent at cost, 16 cents in a self-addressed return envelope. Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam, author of Let's Explore Your Mind, c/o this newspaper.

Answer to Question No. 1
No. Modern women marry slightly younger than in the past and many of them become grandmothers at comparatively early ages. We used to think of grandma sitting at the spinning wheel spinning yarn. She still uses the spinning wheel, but it's different now. As Bob Hope says, he saw one grandma at "the old spinning wheel" at Las Vegas. She won $500 on the red. Times and grandmas have sure changed.

Answer to Question No. 2
No, hardly one in 1000. Just watch your visitors. They rub their faces, fidget in their chairs, and talk in high jerky voices. Dr. Edmund Jacobson, University of Chicago, has shown that few people rest even while they sleep. Their nerves and muscles

Answer to Question No. 3
No. Sen. McMahon says: "We can get through the Iron Curtain. While Russia is laboring round the clock to spread lies, we spend hardly enough to give but a weak reply on the 'Voice of America.' He advocates dropping millions of $2 radios for the satellite peoples and others to hear about America and to receive messages through the Iron Curtain. Loud applause here!"
