LOOKING AND LISTENING

CBS-TV Network to Show Charles Fight Wednesday

Scheduled realignment brings a rather important heavyweight fight to radio and television this week. It will be the outdoor battle between Ezzard Charles, former champion, and Rex Layne, at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, on Wednesday night via CBS.

In announcing this event would replace the previously listed middleweight match at Detroit between Ray Barnes and Terry Moore, the sponsor said the fight, originally billed for tonight, was changed to make possible the radio and TV pickup.

This will be the first fight of the Wednesday night series to go coast to coast, the hookup to include Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Sen. Robert A. Taft, making an address at Detroit next Monday night, is to be on both radio and television. The telecast will start at 5:30 (P. s. t.) with radio scheduled an hour later from a recording. He is to be speaking at the Republicans united dinner. . . . When first announcement came from NBC that Duffy's Tavern would be back on radio as usual this fall, it was listed for a new time on Saturday night. In rearrangement of schedules Ed Gardner finds his show right back on Friday night at just about the time he had last year. . . . Gary Moore, radio trained but now exclusively TV via CBS where he has been restricting his activities to the daytime list five times a week, will go into night operation soon every other week. His added series, set to begin Oct. 18, will alternate with the Burns and Allen Show. . . . Although coast to coast TV facilities are available and the program itself already has originated from Hollywood, Abbott and Costello are going to New York this week to make the season's first appearance in the comedy hour on NBC-TV next Sunday night.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW . . . Would like to see Joe Yuki and his Dixieland Jazz Band group land somewhere on a permanent basis. His style of playing is not the noisy ear-drum breaker kind, but rather Dixieland in a sophisticated style . . . completely sans the usual "razz-ma-tazz" which so many groups feel necessary. . . . The Gildersleeve show will hit television, but not until next fall instead of the first of the year as originally planned. . . . Hollywood was laughing at this one this week: The No. 1 rated show in Russia features Joe Stalin in a program called, "Me, the People."

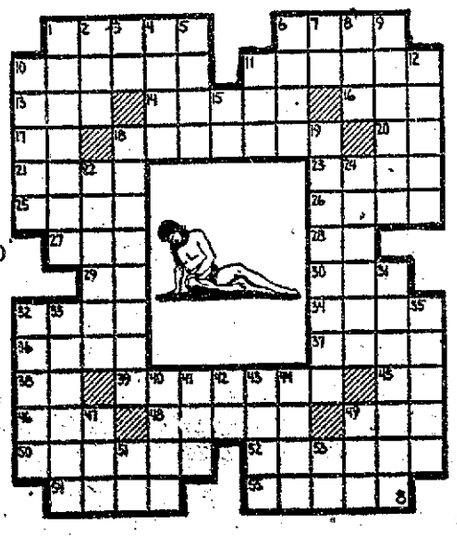
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

Yes, according to "The Criminality of Women," a book by Sociologist Otto Pollak, who shows that women are as criminal-minded as men, and more deceitful. He describes an amazing document entitled "Malleus Maleficarum" that appeared in 1487 and claimed the feminine tendency to lie was due to the fact that Eve was created from Adam's curved rib, and that women's minds were, therefore, by nature crooked. So, boys, don't rib these divine creatures for something they can't help. Dr. Pollak, however, does not accept this curvaceous explanation of women's deceitfulness! I doubt it myself; I knew a man who once told a lie. His initials were A. E. W.

Answer to Question No. 2

Yes, on the average. However, a skilled worker earns far more than college graduate accountants, engineers, and especially school teachers. Top school teachers earn around $4800 a year. Boss rollers in steel mills earn $15,000 to $18,000; top mechanics $12,000 to $15,000; skilled carpenters and plasterers $8000. Gosh! I'm in the wrong business.

Answer to Question No. 3

Yes, according to Psychologist James F. Bender, who says waiters can spot the finicky food crank by the way he orders. Of course, if you have a real stomach ailment, you have to eat carefully, but you can keep it to yourself. The food crank makes a fuss about it, and is hard to live with. I imagine that, fortunately, they don't live very long.

WANT TO LEARN SELF-CONTROL? HOW TO MANAGE YOUR FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS is Dr. Wiggam's new illustrated booklet. It describes clearly what happens to both your mind and body when your feelings and emotions conquer you and it also fully explains what you can do about it—how you can master your feelings and gain self-confidence.

This remarkable booklet is yours for 15c (in coin only). Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam care of this newspaper. Include a stamped (3c) self-addressed return envelope.
