TIP O' THE MORNING: A new religious program sponsored by the Lutheran Laymen's League will start Dec. 9 on WIBA.

University of Wisconsin students from Madison, Waunakee, Milwaukee, Chicago, and Wauwatosa will be featured entertainers at the Kickoff Ball on Nov. 9 and the Campa on Nov. 10 in the Memorial Union.

The students were first-place winners in last week's third annual Talent Search on the campus. They will receive trophies at the dances.

Winners in their respective classes were: Mark Silber, Milwaukee, pantomimist (dorms); Caryl Weiss, Chicago, singer (organized independent houses); Sally Sibbald, Wauwatosa, singer (sororities and fraternities), and a barbershop quartet composed of Wayne Kellner, Richard DeMars, and Jerome Goodrich, Madison, and John Bieherstein, Waunakee (private houses and Madison residents).

Second-place winners in the contest sponsored by the Wisconsin Union dance committee were: Diane Dahl, Bloomer, and Myra Fierek, Wittenberg, vocal duo (dorms); Anne Tzirilas, Chicago, singer (organized independent houses); Richard Fjeldheim and Dale Reistad, Rib Lake, vocal duo (sororities and fraternities), and Chuck Stumpf, Madison, folk singer, tied with Orrin Nehls, Juneau, baritone (private houses and Madison residents).

MUSIC: A Madison student, Dick Johnson, has been selected as a member of the Arizona State College Symphony orchestra at Tempe, Ariz. Prof. Charles O. Bowers will conduct the group in its first concert next month.

ART: Paintings by three University of Wisconsin faculty members will be shown in the 60th annual American exhibition of oil paintings and sculptures at the Art Institute of Chicago from Oct. 25 through Dec. 16.

PLAYERS: Gertrude Johnson, Blanche Theobom, the Met opera singer, is here for the first time since she worked in "The Great Caruso." She'll sing the title role of "Carmen" with the San Francisco Opera Co., Nov. 4.

Edna Liessmann, teaching at Two Rivers.
Wayne Wolfert, in television at Louisville, Ky.
Al Blomquist, planning trip to Sweden for research in the theater.

Felix Wasserman, assistant headmaster at Windom Mountain School for Boys, Lennox, Mass.
Edna Liessmann, teaching at Two Rivers.

Film Fare: Edith Gwynn, State Journal correspondent, reports from Hollywood.
"Topsy and Eva," set to be Betty Hutton's next at Paramount, is the life story of famed stage team, the Duncan sisters — and has nothing to do with "Uncle Tom's Cabin."
Dinah Shore may be playing Eva to Betty's Topsy and what wonderful fun and singing T H A T would be! This one should surge with authenticity. Dick Bare, who wrote the story will help produce, is a cousin of the Duncan sisters and broke into show business through their efforts.

Sorry to learn that James Dunn, one-time Academy Award winner, has filed a bankruptcy petition in N.Y. He's just as fine an actor as always and has been proving it on many a video drama. Hollywood is the loser if it doesn't bring him back.

"The strangest letter I ever got!"
Here, I'll let you read it... says Mrs. Joseph Ketter.
RUSSELL MILLER MILLING CO. OCCIDENT FLOUR MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

1. "The Occident photographer brought enough cameras, flashbulbs and gadgets to shoot a society wedding. I'll never know how I managed to bake two cakes in all that hubbub. But I did... carefully following the directions on the boxes.

2. "The whole family (except 11-year old Billy left, above) agreed that the Occident cake was fresher tasting and had a nicer texture. Billy said he liked both cakes! I see now why you say you can't miss baking a more heavenly cake with Occident Cake Mix!"

3. "Here's how the cakes turned out—the one on the right is the Occident cake. I learned that one reason it was higher and lighter was the fresh eggs called for in the recipe. Then the cake experts, my family, did their own testing.

4. "The whole family (except 11-year old Billy left, above) agreed that the Occident cake was fresher tasting and had a nicer texture. Billy said he liked both cakes! I see now why you say you can't miss baking a more heavenly cake with Occident Cake Mix!"

The Proof is in the Pictures—(and in the eating, too)
You can't miss baking Heavenly Cakes with OCCIDENT CAKE MIX!
Now it's your turn to get this same thrill! For you can make the same comparison test right in your own kitchen. Try it! At first sight you'll see that your Occident Mix cake has bigger layers, even texture. At first bite you'll taste its fresher flavor... the result of Occident's carefully blended ingredients (and fresh eggs and flavoring you add yourself). Yes, your Occident Mix cake will be the most heavenly table-delight you ever served a happy family. Don't wait another day to spring this wonderful surprise. Now... now's the time!
