

TIP O' THE MORNING: Henry Fonda has a new hit in "Point of No Return," reviewers of pre-Broadway showings predict.

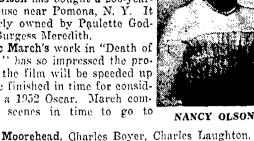

Wisconsin names in the news: Vaughn Monroe's name soon will be used on a line of cow boy outfits for kids.

Fred MacMurray is one of the Hollywood folks who invested in "Top

Banana," the Broadway musical hit. Robert Clarke will have the top role in "Swords of Venus," going into production in Hollywood this week.

Nancy Olson has bought a 200-yearold farmhouse near Pomona, N. Y. It was formerly owned by Paulette Goddard and Burgess Meredith.

Frederic March's work in "Death of a Salesman" has so impressed the producer that the film will be speeded up so it will be finished in time for considoration for a 1952 Oscar. March completed his scenes in time to go to

Agnes Moorehead, Charles Boyer, Charles Laughton, and Codric Hardwicke will return to New York with "Don Juan in Hell" for a four-week run starting Nov. 29. Other Wisconsin names in the Broadway billings: Melvyn Douglas in "Glad Tidings." Charles Winninger in "Music in the Air," Uta Hagen in "St. Joan."

KENTON ON THE AIR: A portion of Stan Kenton's program of music for dancing at the Eagles club Wednesday night will be aired by WIBA and WIBA-FM in the interests of army and air force recruiting. The broadcast at 10:30 will include songs by June Christy and other Kenton features.

THEATER GUILD: Production plans for "Hansel and tiretel," to be presented Dec. 8 and 15, will be discussed by Director E. D. Barraclough at a meeting of the Madison Theater Guild tonight. The group will meet at 7:45 in the library of the Madison Community center.

All persons interested in civic theater activity are invited to the meeting," Pres. Walter E. Malec said Monday.

Fredrick A. Buerki, technical director of the Wisconsin Union theater and technical adviser to the Guild's production board, will be the featured speaker tonight.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby -

TOP TUNES: "Cold. Cold Heart" was Madison's favorite popular single last week, according to WFOW's "Madison Hit Parade." Nationally. "Because of You" led in the Billboard's tabulation.

Here's how the lists compare, with the Madison choice first and the Billboard selection second:

ONE. "Cold. Cold Heart"... "Because of You."

TWO. "Because of You"... "Sin."

THREE. "Down Yonder"... "Cold. Cold Heart."

FOUR. "Sin"... "Down Yonder."

FIVE. "Undecided"... "I Get Ideas."

SIX. "I Get Ideas"... "And So to Sleep Again."

SEVEN. "Hey, Good Lookin"... "Undecided."

EIGHT. "A Kiss to Build a Dream On"... "The World Is Waitford to criticize it.

All four players at the table have won several national championships, and if you'd like to tell them what palookas they are, you can find them at this year's nationals in Detroit during the first week of December.
