Walarm...maybe a second alarm...perhaps even a third. But the biggest alarm of all is the alarm in your heart,

"Was anybody caught inside...anybody I know ... hurt? ... burned? ... overcome? How'd it start? How much loss? What's the whole story?"

Even if you have a police pass or a good fview from a roof, you still burn up with unsatisfied suspense and curiosity

Until you see your newspaper.

V You grab your paper and all the answers are that matters to you. Plus a hundred things you don't find anywhere else.

It doesn't take a fire. You can be just as wrought up tomorrow about a plan in the town council to widen your street. You never know what's coming ... so you read your newspaper every day.

Everybody else is fust like you. Everybody reads the newspaper every day. If one thing doesn't stir them - it's another. To a thrifty housewife, the fire sale can be just as important as the fire.

That's why when you have something to Magazines reach only fractions of your market. For each one appeals to some people-not to others. No magazine is read by everyone in town who can possibly buy.

Radio and TV programs reach only fractions of your market. Each one appeals to only a special audience - sports fans, homemakers, kids, etc. And how many of these can listen at the time you broadcast?

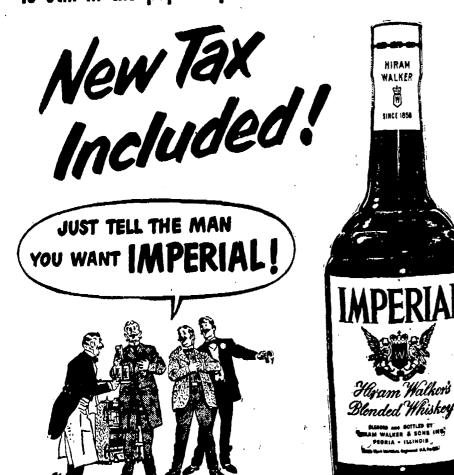

The newspaper talks to everybody in town. It's created fresh every day to appeal to everybody. Just as you read the paper now, all your customers and prospects read the paper tooat the times they choose, for as long as they choosel
