Take Controls Job, Johnston Appeals to Qualified Men

WASHINGTON _(U.P) Retir-ing Economic Stabilizer Eric A. Johnston appealed Friday for some qualified man to take over his job, which already has been spurned by Price Chief Michael V. DiSalle and several others.

Johnston resigned Thursday, ef-fective at the end of this month, to return to his $100,000-a-year position as president of the Mo-tion Picture assn. He told a news conference that Pres. Truman has not yet been able to line up a successor al-though "people are being asked every day" to accept the $20,000-a-year stabilization post.

Five-year-old Carol Alexander smilingly clutches two precious dolls she rescued when a fire broke out in her home at Arlington, Mass.

Mass. Carol was playing in her house with other children when fire started in basement. She ran out with her friends and told her mother Mrs. Leo Alexander, who was next door. While the mother was calling fire department, Carol broke away, rushed into smoke-filled house and rescued her dolls. (Ar Wirephoto)

who have ducked the hot-spot as-signment, Johnston said: "Anyone whom Mr. Truman asks to take over his job should answer the call and put aside per-sonal considerations." Johnston disclosed that he per-sonally had recommended DiSalle as his successor, but that DiSalle
